

IN THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT COURT OF BAUCHI STATE
IN THE SMALL CLAIM COURT
NO. 9, TORO LGA, BAUCHI STATE
SUIT NO. SCC/TR/09/0011^{CV}/2026

BEFORE HIS WORSHIP AMINU UMAR Esq

TODAY THE 13TH MAY, 2026

BETWEEN:

AMOS ISHAYA.....CLAIMANT

VS

YAKUBU BELLO.....DEFENDANT

JUDGEMENT

The suit was filed on the 6th April, 2026 for the claim of Six Hundred and Eighty Thousand Naira arising from a transaction of sweet potatoes business between the claimant and the defendant.

The claimant claim against the defendant was that he advance sweet potatoes to the tune of 680,000.00 Naira to the defendant and the defendant failed to repay the money,

The defendant admitted the claim and the parties agree to settle the matter out of court and filed and adopted term of settlement between them.

Therefore, the court formulate and issue thus, "whether a claimant is in entitled to judgment base on the admission of the defendant or further prove is required"

The law is settled that "fact admitted need not be proved"

However, the court is also guided by the principle that “ a plaintiff must succeed on the strength of his case”

The court refers to the case of OKPOKAM Vs TREASURY GALLERY LTD (2017) LPELR – 42809 (CA) “that the Claimant must succeed on the strength of his own case and must adduce credible evidence even where the defense is weak”

So the court hold.

In this case the claimant was able to establish his case through two witnesses.

Accordingly, consent judgment is here by entered between the parties as per admission of the defendant and term of settlement between the parties.

Aggrieve parties have 14days to appeal.
