

IN THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT COURT OF BAUCHI STATE
IN THE SMALL CLAIM COURT
NO. 9, TORO LGA, BAUCHI STATE
SUIT NO. SCC/TR/09/0015<sup>CV</sup>/2026

BEFORE HIS WORSHIP AMINU UMAR Esq

TODAY THE 13TH MAY, 2026

BETWEEN:

DINAH YAKUBU .....CLAIMANT

VS

AMOS ISHAYA .....DEFENDANT

JUDGEMENT

The suit was filed on the 30th April, 2026 arising from a Loan transaction of 550,000.00 naira advances to the defendant by the claimant.

The defendant admitted liability and parties filed and adopted their terms of settlement.

Therefore, the court formulate and issue thus, “whether a claimant is in entitled to judgment base on the admission of the defendant or further prove is required”

The law is settled that “fact admitted need not be proved”

However, the court is also guided by the principle that “ a plaintiff must succeed on the strength of his case”

The court refers to the case of OKPOKAM Vs TREASURY GALLERY LTD (2017) LPELR – 42809 (CA) “that the Claimant must succeed on the strength of his own case and must adduce credible evidence even where the defense is weak”

So the court hold.

In this case the claimant was able to establish her case through two witnesses.

Accordingly, consent judgment is here by entered between the parties as per admission of the defendant and term of settlement between the parties.

Aggrieve parties have 14days to appeal.
