

IN THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT COURT OF BAUCHI STATE
IN THE SMALL CLAIM COURT
NO. 9, TORO LGA, BAUCHI STATE
SUIT NO. SCC/TR 09/005^{CV}/2026

BEFORE HIS WORSHIP AMINU UMAR Esq

TODAY THE 13TH MAY, 2026

BETWEEN:

TORO SALAMA WOMEN DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE.....CLAIMANT

VS

RUKAIYA ADAMU (A.K.A AZUMI) HASKE SLG RIMI.....DEFENDANT

JUDGEMENT

The suit was filed on the 24th Mach, 2026 arising from a Loan Transaction of N594,949.000.00 naira which the claimant advances to the dependent the dependant admitted the claim and parties filed and adopted their terms of settlement.

Therefore, the court formulate and issue thus, “whether a claimant is in entitled to judgment base on the admission of the defendant or further prove is required”

The law is settled that “fact admitted need not be proved”

However, the court is also guided by the principle that “ a plaintiff must succeed on the strength of his case”

The court refers to the case of OKPOKAM Vs TREASURY GALLERY LTD (2017) LPELR – 42809 (CA) “that the Claimant must succeed on the strength of his own case and must adduce credible evidence even where the defense is weak”

So the court hold.

In this case the claimant was able to establish her case through three documents to wit; (a) Application for Loan by the defendant to the claimant dated 10th April, 2024 (b) Toro Salama Woment Development Initiative Disbursement savings and Loan Group (SLG) Loan Application form (c)Toro Salama Woment Development Initiative Disbursement record Dated 6th June 2024

Accordingly, consent judgment is here by entered between the parties as per admission of the defendant and their terms of settlement.

Aggrieve parties have 14days to appeal.
