

IN THE PRINCIPAL DISTRICT COURT OF BAUCHI STATE
IN THE SMALL CLAIM COURT
NO. 9, TORO LGA, BAUCHI STATE

SUIT NO. SCC/TR/908^{CV}/2026

BEFORE HIS WORSHIP AMINU UMAR ESQ
TODAY THE 06TH MAY, 2026

BETWEEN:

HAFSA ABDULLAHICLAIMANT

VS

KAMAL SALARMADEFENDANT

JUDGEMENT

The suit was filed on the 2nd April, 2026 for the claim of Seven Hundred and Sixty Thousand Naira arising from a partnership business between the claimant and the defendant.

The claimant claim against the defendant was that she advance the sum of money to the defendant for a partnership business, but the defendant failed on his part and the claimant now claiming N760,000.00 remaining balance she advanced to the defendant.

The defendant admitted the claim and completed form SCA5 admission part on the 07/04/2026 and in course of proceedings and promise to repay the money; N100,000.00 weekly to the claimant.

Therefore, the court formulate and issue thus, "whether a claimant is in entitled to judgment based on the admission of the defendant or further prove is required"

The law is settled that "fact admitted need not be proved"

However, the court is also guided by the principle that "a plaintiff must succeed on the strength of his case"

The court refers to the case of ONPOKAM Vs TREASURY GALLERY LTD (2017) LPCLR - 42809 (CA) that the Claimant must succeed on the strength of his own case and must adduce credible evidence even where the defense is weak"

So the court hold.

In this case the claimant was able to establish her case through two witnesses.

Accordingly, consent judgment is here by entered between the parties as per admission of the defendant on completed form SCA5 admission part.

Aggrieve parties have 14days to appeal.
