Court:

Claimant is present

Defendant is present

Abubakar – Affirms to interpret the proceedings from English to Hausa Language.

1st Claimant – He collected the amount of N200, 000, then N150, 000 and the 3rd installment N50, 000 making N450, 000 that he will dig a borehole, end of December, they said they will go on break, uptill 2025, then 2026 nothing, the same story all through the years. Then I asked for a refund then it reached 2years nothing, then I felt there was unseriousness I decided to come forward.

2nd Claimant – All he said is what happened.

Defendant – What he said is so...

| so now he has paid N100, 000 out of N450, 000 – 100, 000 = N350, 000. N350, 000 to pay him back.

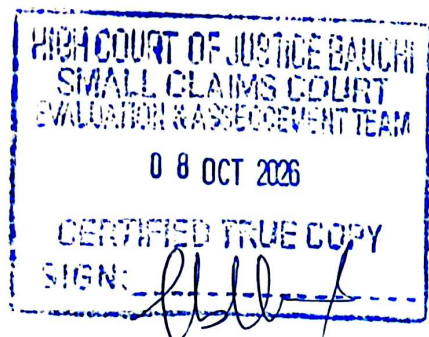

Defendant – I plead for N50, 000 each month that makes 7months time.

Court – You have heard his requested? What do you have to say?

Claimant – I plead for him to pay me back in 3months time that is N116, 000 each month.

Court – Inview of the above, I have heard from both parties and I have reached to the conclusion that, the said amount within 5months instead of 7months as requested. The payment will commence from the 1st to December 2026, and if the defendant defaults, the court will take further action, that means he is expected to deposit the sum of N70, 000 each month to the registry of this Hon. Court unfailingly, the above terms is entered as the consent judgment of this Hon. Court and it is binding on both parties.

You have the right to appeal.
