24. Power to arrest.

Any Police may arrest:

- (1) With or without court order or warrant only in the circumstances mentioned in section 40 of this law.
- (2) Where there is a reasonable suspicion that any suspect has committed an indictable offence, the Commissioner of Police shall ensure that the investigation of such offence is conducted in conjunction with designated law officers from the Ministry of Justice of the State.
- (3) Upon a request by the Police, the Attorney-General shall, not later than 3 days of receiving such request assign a law officer to work with the police in the investigation provided that this provision shall not derogate from the powers of the police to conduct investigation speedily.

25. Arrest generally.

A suspect or defendant alleged to have committed an offence established by a law of the State House of Assembly shall be arrested, investigated, inquired into, tried or dealt with according to the provisions of this law, except otherwise provided by this law.

PART IV

ARREST GENERALLY, BAIL AND PREVENTIVE JUSTICE

26. Mode of arrest

In making an arrest, the police officer or other persons making the arrest shall actually touch or confine the body of the suspect, unless there is a submission to the custody by word or action.

27. No unnecessary restraint

A suspect or defendant may not be handcuffed or otherwise bound or be subjected to restraint except:

- (a) There is reasonable apprehension of violence or an attempt to escape;
- (b) The restraint is considered necessary for the safety of the suspect or defendant; or
- (c) By order of a Court

28. Notification of cause of arrest and right of suspect.

(1) Except when the suspect is in the actual course of the commission of an offence or is pursued immediately after the commission of an offence or has escaped from lawful custody, the police officer or other persons making the arrest shall inform the suspect immediately of the reason for the arrest.

(2) The police officer or the person making the arrest shall inform the suspect of his rights to:

- (a) Remain silent or avoid answering any question until after consultation with a legal practitioner or any other person of his own choice;
- (b) Consult a legal practitioner of his choice before making, endorsing or writing any statement or answering any question put to him after arrest; and
- (c) free legal representation by the Legal Aid Council of Nigeria where applicable:

PROVIDED the authority having custody of the Suspect shall have the responsibility of notifying the next of kin or relative of the Suspect of the arrest at no cost to the Suspect.

29. Arrest in lieu prohibited.

A person shall not be arrested in place of a Suspect.

30. Humane treatment of arrested suspect

- (1) A Suspect shall-
 - (a) be accorded humane treatment, having regard to his right to the dignity of his person; and
 - (b) not to be subjected to any form of torture, cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment.
- (2) A person shall not be arrested merely on a civil wrong or breach of contract.
- (3) A suspect shall be brought before the court as prescribed by this Law or any other law or otherwise released conditionally or unconditionally.
- (4) The arraignment and trial of a suspect for a crime shall be in accordance with the provisions of this law unless otherwise stated in this law.

31. Search of arrested person.

- (1) Where a suspect is arrested by a police officer or a private person, the officer making the arrest or to whom the private person hands over the suspect:
 - (a) may search the suspect, using such force as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose and
 - (b) shall keep in safe custody all articles other than necessary wearing apparel found on the Suspect.
- (2) Where a suspect is admitted to bail, he shall not, subject to the provisions of section 33 of this law, be searched unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that he has on his person, any:
 - (a) stolen articles;
 - (b) instruments of violence or poisonous substance;
 - (c) tools connected with the kind of offence which he is alleged to have committed; or
 - (d) other articles which may furnish evidence against him in regard to the offence, which he is alleged to have committed.

- (3) Where it is necessary to search a Suspect, the search shall be made decently and by a person of the same gender
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a police officer or any other person making an arrest may in any case take from the suspect any instruments of violence or poisonous substance which he has on his person.

32. Inventory of property of arrested suspect.

- (1) A police officer making an arrest or to whom a private person hands over the suspect, shall immediately record information about the suspect and take an inventory of all items or property recovered from the suspect.
- (2) An inventory recorded under subsection (1) of this section shall be duly signed by the police officer and the suspect, but the failure or neglect of the suspect to sign the inventory shall not invalidate it.
- (3) The suspect, his legal practitioner, or such other person as the suspect may direct, shall be given a copy of the inventory.
- (4) Where any property has been taken under this section from a suspect, a police officer may, upon request by either the owner of the property or parties having interest in the property, release such property on bond pending the arraignment of the Suspect before a court.
- (5) Where a police officer refuses to release the property to the owner or any person having interest in the property under subsection (4) of this section, the police officer shall make a report to the court of the fact of the property taken from the arrested suspect and the particulars of the property.
- (6) The court to which a report is made under subsection (5) of this section, may, if it is of the opinion that the property or any portion of it can be returned in the interest of justice to the safe custody of the owner or person having interest in the property, direct that the property or any portion of it be returned to the owner or to such person having interest in the property.

- (7) Where any property has been taken from a suspect under this Section, and the suspect is not charged before a court but is released on the ground that there is no sufficient reason to believe that he has committed an offence, any property so taken from the suspect shall be returned to him, provided the property is neither connected to nor a proceed of offence.

33. Examination of Arrested suspect.

Where a suspect is in lawful custody on a charge of committing an offence of such a nature and under circumstances that there are reasonable grounds for believing that an examination of his person will afford evidence as to the commission of the offence, a qualified medical practitioner or any certified professional with relevant skills, acting on the request of a police officer, may make such an examination of the suspect in custody as is reasonably necessary in order to obtain the requisite evidence necessary for his prosecution.

34. Search of place Entered by Suspect Sought to be arrested.

- (1) Where a person or police officer acting under a warrant of arrest or otherwise having authority to arrest, has reason to believe that the suspect to be arrested has entered into or is within any house or place, the person residing in or being in charge of the house or place shall, on demand by the police officer or person acting for the police officer, allow him free access to the house or place and afford all reasonable facilities to search the house or place for the suspect sought to be arrested.
- (2) Where access to a house or place cannot be obtained under subsection (1) of this section, the person or police officer may enter the house or place and search it for the suspect to be arrested, and in order to effect an entrance into the house or place, may break open any outer or inner door or window of any house or place, whether that of the suspect to be arrested or of any other person or otherwise effect entry into such house or place, if after notification of his authority and purpose, and demand of admittance duly made, he cannot obtain admittance.
- (3) Where the suspect to be arrested enters a house or place in the actual occupancy of another person being a woman who by custom or religious practice does not appear in public, the person making the arrest shall:

- (a) before entering the house or place, give notice to the woman that she is at liberty to withdraw; and
- (b) afford her every reasonable opportunity and facility for withdrawing, and may then enter the house or place, but the notice shall not be necessary where the person making the arrest is a woman.

35. Power to break Out of a house or Place for the Purpose of liberation.

A police officer or any other person authorised to make an arrest may break out of a house or place in order to liberate himself or any other person who, having lawfully entered for the purpose of making an arrest, is detained in the house or place.

36. Arrested suspect to Be taken immediately to police station.

- (1) A suspect who is arrested, whether with or without a warrant, shall be taken immediately to a police station, or any other lawful place and shall promptly be informed of the allegation against him in the language he understands.
- (2) A person who has the custody of an arrested suspect shall give the suspect reasonable facilities for obtaining legal advice, access to communication for taking steps to furnish bail, and otherwise making arrangements for his defence or release.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (2) of this section, any such communication or legal advice shall be done in the sighting distance of an officer who has custody of the arrested suspect.

37. Suspect be informed of the offence.

- (1) Where a suspect is arrested, whether with or without a warrant, and taken to a police station or any other agency effecting the arrest, the police officer making the arrest or the Officer in charge shall cause to be taken immediately, in the prescribed form, the following record of the suspect arrested:
 - (a) the alleged offence;
 - (b) the date and circumstances of his arrest;
 - (c) his full name, occupation, residential address e-mail; and
 - (d) for the purpose of identification:

- (i) his height,
 - (ii) his photograph,
 - (iii) his full fingerprint impressions,
 - (v) DNA whenever possible,
 - (vi) National Identity Number,
 - (vii) telephone number, and
 - (viii) such other means of his identification.
- (2) The process of recording in subsection (1) of this section shall be concluded within a reasonable time of the arrest of the suspect, but not exceeding 48 hours.
- (3) Any further action in respect of the Suspect arrested pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be entered in the record of arrests.
- (4) Where a suspect who is arrested with or without a warrant volunteer to make a confessional statement, the police officer shall ensure that the making and taking of the statement shall be in writing and shall be recorded electronically on a retrievable video or audio device.
- (5) An oral confession of arrested suspect shall be admissible in evidence.
- (6) A prosecutor who seeks to rely on a confessional statement allegedly made voluntarily by a suspect shall, while presenting the prosecution's case adduce evidence to show the voluntariness of the said statement.
- (7) Any objection to the admissibility to such confessional statement shall be recorded and shall be ruled upon by the court while delivering judgment in the substantive case.

38. Central Criminal Record Registry.

- (1) There shall be established in the state command of the Nigeria Police Force a State Criminal Records Registry.
- (2) The Registry shall maintain in both electronic and manual forms a record of all persons arrested, discharged, acquitted or convicted in the State.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, there shall be established at every Area Command a Criminal Records Registry which shall keep and transmit all such records to the State Criminal Records Registry, Bauchi and the Central Records Registry at the Police Headquarters, Abuja.
- (4) The State Police Command shall ensure that the decisions of the court in all criminal trials are transmitted to the State and the Central Criminal Records Registries within 30 days of the judgment.

39. Recording of statement/interview of suspect

- (1) Where a suspect is arrested on allegation of having committed an offence, he shall be interviewed or his statement shall be taken, if he so wishes to make a statement.
- (2) Such interview or statement may be conducted or taken in the presence of a legal practitioner of his choice, or where he has no legal practitioner of his choice, in the presence of an officer of the Legal Aid Council of Nigeria or an official of a civil society or any other person of his choice. Provided that the legal practitioner or any other person mentioned in this subsection shall not interfere while the suspect is being interviewed or making his statement, except for the purpose of discharging his role as a legal practitioner.
- (3) Where a suspect does not understand or speak or write in the English language, an interpreter shall interpret, record and read over the statement to the suspect to his understanding and the suspect shall then endorse the statement as having been made by him and the interpreter shall attest to the making of the statement.
- (4) The interpreter shall endorse his name, address, occupation, designation, telephone number and/or other particulars on the statement.
- (5) The suspect referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall also endorse the statement with his full particulars.

40. Arrest by police officer without warrant.

- (1) A police officer may, without an order of a court and without a warrant, arrest a suspect:
 - (a) whom he suspects on reasonable grounds of having committed an offence against a law of the state or against the law of any other state, unless the law creating the offence provides that the suspect cannot be arrested without a warrant;
 - (b) who commits any offence in his presence;
 - (c) who obstructs a police officer while in the execution of his duty, or who has escaped or attempts to escape from lawful custody;
 - (d) in whose possession anything is found which may reasonably be suspected to be stolen property or who may reasonably be suspected of having committed an offence with reference to the thing;
 - (e) whom he suspects on reasonable grounds of being a deserter from any of the armed forces of Nigeria;
 - (f) whom he suspects on reasonable grounds of having been involved in an act committed at a place outside the state which, if committed in the state, would have been punished as an offence, and for which he is, under a law in force in the state, liable to be apprehended and detained in the state;
 - (g) having in his possession without lawful excuse, the burden of proving same shall lie on such person, any implement of housebreaking, car theft, firearm or any offensive or dangerous weapon;
 - (h) whom he has reasonable cause to believe a warrant of arrest has been issued by a court of competent jurisdiction in Nigeria;
 - (i) found in the state taking precautions to conceal his presence in circumstances, which afford reason to believe that he is taking such precautions with a view to committing an offence;
 - (j) whose arrest warrant has been issued or whom he is directed to arrest by Judge, Magistrate, or superior police officer;
 - (k) whom he reasonably suspects to be designing to commit an offence for which the Police may arrest without a warrant, if it appears to him that the commission of the offence cannot be otherwise prevented;

- (l) required to appear by a public summons issued under this law or any other law; or
- (m) whom he reasonably suspects to be damaging any public property.
- (2) The authority given to a police officer to arrest a suspect who commits an offence in his presence shall be exercisable in respect of offences committed in the officer's presence notwithstanding that the Law creating the offence provides that the suspect cannot be arrested without a warrant.

41. Refusal to give name and residence

- (1) Where a suspect who, in the presence of a police officer, has committed or has been accused of committing an offence triable summarily, refuses on demand of the officer to give his name and residential address, or gives a name or residential address which the officer has reason to believe to be false, he may be arrested by the officer in order that his name or residential address may be ascertained.
- (2) Where the true name and residential address of the suspect has been ascertained, he shall be released on his executing a recognizance, with or without sureties, to appear before a Magistrate if so required, but if the person is not resident in the State, a surety or sureties resident in the State shall secure the recognizance.
- (3) Where the true name and address of the suspect cannot be ascertained within twenty-four hours from the time of arrest, or if he fails to execute recognizance, or, where so required, to furnish sufficient sureties, he shall forthwith be brought before the nearest Magistrate having jurisdiction.
- (4) Where the suspect on being brought before the court still refuses, the court may deal with him as it will deal with an uncooperative witness.

- (1) A private person may arrest a suspect in the state who in his presence commits an offence, or whom he reasonably suspects of having committed an offence for which the police is entitled to arrest without a warrant.
- (2) A suspect found committing an offence involving injury to property may be arrested without a warrant by the owner of the property or his servants, agent or any other person.
- (3) A private person may arrest any suspect found damaging public property.

43. Handover of an arrested suspect by Private person.

- (1) A private person who arrests a suspect without a warrant shall immediately hand over the suspect so arrested to a police officer, or, in the absence of a police officer, shall take the suspect to the nearest police station, and the Police Officer shall make a note of the name, address and other particulars of the private person making the arrest.
- (2) Where there is reason to believe that the arrested suspect comes under the provisions of section 14 (1) of this law, a police officer shall re-arrest him.
- (3) Where there is reason to believe that the suspect has committed an offence, and he refuses on the demand of a police officer to give his name and address, or gives a name or address which the officer reasonably believes to be false, he shall be dealt with under the provisions of Section 41 (2) of this Law.
- (4) Where a suspect so arrested by a private person is handed over to a police officer or to an official of an agency authorized by law to make arrests, the police officer or official shall take note of the name, residential address and other particulars of the private person making the arrest, and the date, time and other circumstances of the arrest, and where the arrested suspect is taken to the police station or to agency, the officer in charge shall make the entries in the crime diary or relevant record.
- (5) The police officer or official to whom the arrested suspect is handed over by the private person shall obtain from the private person who made the arrest a formal witness statement setting out the facts and circumstances of the arrest.

- (6) Where there is sufficient reason to believe that the suspect handed over has committed an offence, he shall immediately be re-arrested but if there is no sufficient reason to believe that the suspect has committed an offence, he shall be released immediately provided that no person shall be liable for any action carried out in good faith.
- (7) The provisions of section 37 of this Law do not apply to this section unless the suspect arrested and handed over has been re-arrested in accordance with sub section (2) of this section.

44. Offence committed in presence of Judge or Magistrate

- (1) Where an offence is committed in the presence of a Judge or Magistrate within the division or district in which the Judge is sitting or to which the Magistrate is assigned, the Judge or Magistrate may himself arrest or order a person to arrest the suspect and may thereupon, subject to the provisions contained in this law as to bail, commit the suspect to custody.
- (2) A Magistrate may arrest or direct the arrest in his presence of a suspect whose arrest on a warrant he could have lawfully ordered if the facts known to him at the time of making or directing the arrest had been stated before him on oath by some other person.
- (3) Where a suspect is arrested in accordance with the provisions of either Section (1) or (2) of this law, the Judge or Magistrate making or directing the making of such arrest may deal with the suspect so arrested in the same manner as if the suspect had been brought before him by any other person.
- (4) A Judge or Magistrate may arrest or direct the arrest of a suspect committing an offence in his presence and shall thereupon hand him over to a Police Officer who shall proceed to take necessary action.

45. When public is bound to assist in arrest.

PART VI

PREVENTION OF OFFENCES AND SECURITY FOR GOOD BEHAVIOUR

67. Police to prevent offences and injury to public property

- (1) A Police Officer may intervene for the purpose of preventing, and shall, to the best of his ability, prevent the commission of an offence.
- (2) A Police Officer may on his authority intervene to prevent an injury attempted to be committed in his presence to any person, or damage to public property, whether movable or immovable, or removal of or damage to any public landmark or buoy or other mark used for navigation.

68. Information of design to commit offence.

A Police Officer receiving information of a design to commit any offence shall communicate the information to a Superior Police Officer, and to any other Officer whose duty is to prevent or take cognizance of the commission of the offence.

69. Arrest by police to prevent offences.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this Law or any other Law relating to arrest, a Police Officer upon a reasonable suspicion of a design to commit an offence may arrest, without orders from a Magistrate, Shari'a Court without warrant, the Suspect where it appears to the Officer that the commission of the offence cannot otherwise be prevented.

70. Prevention by other public officers of offences and injury to public property.

- (1) A Judge, Magistrate, or any other public Officer charged with responsibility for maintaining Law and order may intervene for the purpose of preventing and shall, to the best of his ability, prevent the commission of an offence, for which he is authorized to arrest without a warrant or any damage to any public property, movable or immovable.
- (2) A person is bound to assist a Judge or Magistrate or Police Officer or any other public Officer reasonably demanding his aid:

- (a) in preventing, and shall to the best of his ability, prevent the commission of an offence for which he is authorized to arrest without a warrant or any damage to any public property, movable or immovable;
- (b) in the suppression of a breach of the peace or in the prevention of any damage to any property, movable or immovable or to any railway, canal, water supply, telecommunication system, oil pipeline or gas installation, or electrical installation; or
- (c) in the prevention of the removal of, or damage to any public landmark, buoy or other mark used for navigation.

71. Power of Magistrate to require execution of recognizance for keeping peace.

(1) Where a Magistrate, Shari'a Court is informed on oath that a Suspect is likely to:

- (a) commit a breach of the peace or disturb the public tranquillity, or
- (b) do any wrongful act that may probably occasion a breach of the peace or disturb the public tranquillity, the Magistrate, Shari'a or Customary Court on being satisfied that reasonable ground exist may in the manner provided in this Part, require the Suspect to show cause why he should not be ordered to enter into a recognizance, with or Without sureties, for keeping the peace for such period, not exceeding one year, as the Magistrate deems fit.

(2) Proceedings shall not be taken under this Section unless the Suspect is:

- (a) In the State, and
- (b) subject of the information under subsection (1) of this Section within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate, or the place where the breach of the peace or disturbance has occurred or where the Suspect is, is within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate.

72. Security for good behaviour for suspected persons.

Where a Magistrate is informed on oath that:

- (a) a Suspect is taking precautions to conceal his presence within the local limits of the Magistrate's District; and

- (b) there is reason to believe that the Suspect is taking steps with a view to committing an offence, the Magistrate may, in the manner provided in this Part, require the Suspect to show cause why he should not be ordered to enter into a recognizance, with sureties, for his good behaviour for such period not exceeding 1 year, as the Magistrate deems fit.

73. Order to be made.

Where a Magistrate or Shari'a Court acting under Sections 69, 70 or 71 of this Law considers it necessary to require a Suspect to show cause under the Section, he shall make an order in writing setting out:

- (a) the substance of the information received;
- (b) the amount of the recognizance to be executed;
- (c) the term for which it is to be in force; and
- (d) the number, character, and class of sureties, if any, required.

74. Procedure in respect of suspect present in court.

Where the Suspect in respect of whom an order is made is present in Court, it shall be read over to him or, if he so desires, the substance of the information shall be explained to him.

75. Procedure in respect of suspect not present in court.

- (1) Where the Suspect is not present in Court, the Magistrate or Shari'a Court Judge shall issue a summons requiring him to appear, or, where the Suspect is in custody, a warrant directing the Officer in whose custody he is to bring him before the Court.
- (2) Where it appears to the Magistrate or Shari'a Courts on the report of a Police Officer or on other information, the substance of which report or information shall be recorded by the Magistrate, that there is reason to fear the commission of a breach of the peace, and that the breach of the peace cannot be prevented otherwise than by the immediate arrest of the Suspect, the Magistrate or Shari'a Courts may at any time issue a warrant for his arrest.

76. Summons or warrant in case of suspect not present

A summons or warrant of arrest issued under Section 73 of this Law shall be accompanied by a copy of the order made under Section 71 of this Law, and the copy shall be delivered by the Officer serving or executing the summons or warrant to the Suspect served with or arrested under it.

77. Power to dispense with personal attendance.

The Magistrate or Shari'a Courts may, where he sees sufficient cause, dispense with the personal attendance of a Suspect called on to show cause why he should not be ordered to enter into a recognizance for keeping the peace, and may permit him to appear by a legal practitioner.

78. Inquiry as to truth of information.

- (1) Where an order under Section 71 of this Law has been read or explained under Section 72 of this Law to suspect in court, or where the Suspect appears or is brought before a Magistrate or Shari'a Courts in compliance with or in execution of a summons or warrant issued under Section 73 of this Law, the Magistrate or Shari'a Courts shall proceed to inquire into the truth of the information upon which the action has been taken, and to take such further evidence as may appear necessary.
- (2) The inquiry shall be made, as nearly as may be practicable, in the manner prescribed in this Section for conducting trials, and recording evidence, except that the standard of proof shall be that of preponderance of evidence.
- (3) Pending the completion of the inquiry under subsection (1) of this Section, the Magistrate, if he considers that immediate measures are necessary for the prevention of:
 - (a) a breach of the peace or disturbance of the public tranquility; or
 - (b) the commission of any offence or for the public safety, may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct the Suspect in respect of whom the order under Section 71 of this Law has been made, to enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, for keeping the peace or maintaining good behaviour until the conclusion of the inquiry, and may detain the Suspect in custody until the recognizance is entered into or, in default of execution, until the inquiry is concluded.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) of this Section:
- (a) a Suspect against whom proceedings are not being taken under Section 68 of this Law shall not be directed to enter into a recognizance for maintaining good behaviour;
 - (b) the conditions of the recognizance, whether as to the amount or as to the provisions of sureties or the number of sureties or the pecuniary extent of their liability shall not be more onerous than those specified in the order under Section 71 of this Law; and
 - (c) a Suspect shall not be remanded in custody under the powers conferred by this Section for a period exceeding 15 days at a time.
- (5) For the purposes of this Section, the fact that a Suspect comes within the provisions of Section 70 of this Law may be proved by evidence of general repute or otherwise.
- (6) Where two or more Suspects have been associated together in the matter under inquiry, they may be dealt with in the same or separate inquiries as the Magistrate thinks fit.

79. Order to give security

- (1) Where on an inquiry it is proved that it is necessary for keeping the peace or maintaining good behaviour, as the case may be, that the suspect in respect of whom the inquiry is made should enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, the Magistrate or Shari'a Courts shall make an order accordingly, but:
- (a) a Suspect shall not be ordered to give security of a nature different from or of an amount larger than or for a period longer than that specified in the order made under Section 71 of this Law ;
 - (b) the amount of a recognizance shall be fixed with due regard to the circumstances of the case and shall not be excessive; and

- (c) where the Suspect in respect of whom the inquiry is made is a Child, the recognizance shall be entered into as provided in Section 184 of this Law.
- (2) A Suspect ordered to give security for good behaviour under this Section may appeal to the High Court.

80. Discharge of suspect informed against.

Where on an inquiry under Section 76 of this Law it is not proved that it is necessary for keeping the peace or maintaining good behaviour, as the case may be, that the Suspect in respect of whom the inquiry is made should enter into a recognizance, the Magistrate and Shari'a Courts shall make an entry on the record to that effect, and shall, if the Suspect is:

- (a) in custody only for the purpose of the inquiry, release him; or
- (b) not in custody, discharge him.

PART VII

PROCEEDINGS IN ALL CASES SUBSEQUENT TO ORDER TO FURNISH SECURITY

81. Commencement of period for which Security is required.

(1) Where a Suspect in respect of whom an Order requiring security is made under Section 71 of this Law is, at the time the order is made, sentenced to or undergoing a sentence of imprisonment, the period for which the security is required shall commence on the expiration of the sentence.

(2) In other cases, the period shall commence on the date of the order unless the Court, for sufficient reason, fixes a later date.

82. Conditions of recognisance

The recognizance to be entered into by a Suspect under Section 71 of this Law shall bind him to keep the peace or be of good behaviour, as the case may be, and in the latter case the commission or attempt to commit or the aiding, abetting, counseling, or procuring the commission, anywhere within the State, of an offence punishable with imprisonment, wherever it may be committed, any time during the continuance of the recognizance, shall be a breach of the recognizance.

83. Power to reject sureties.

A Court may refuse to accept a surety offered under any of the preceding Sections on the ground that, for reasons to be recorded by the Court, the surety is an unfit person.

84. Procedure on failure of suspect to give security.

Where a Suspect ordered to give security does not give the security on or before the date on which the period for which the security is to be given commences, he shall, except in the case mentioned in this Section, be committed to Custodial Centre until the period expires or the period he gives the security to the Court that made the order requiring it.

85. Release suspect imprisoned for failure to give security.

Where a Court is of the opinion that a Suspect imprisoned for failing to give security may be released without hazard to the community, the Court may, if it deems fit, order the Suspect to be discharged.

86. Power of High Court to cancel recognizance

The High Court may at any time, for sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, cancel any recognizance for keeping the peace or for good behaviour executed under any of the preceding Sections by order of any lower Court.

87. Discharge of sureties

(1) A surety for the peaceable conduct or good behaviour of another Suspect may at any time apply to a Court to discharge a recognizance executed under any of the preceding Sections within the District or division to which the Court is assigned.

(2) On an application being made, the Magistrate or Shari'a Courts shall, if satisfied that there is good reason for the application, issue such summons or warrant, as he thinks fit, requiring the Suspect for whom the surety is bound. to appear or to be brought before him.

(3) Where the Suspect appears or is brought before a Magistrate or Shari'a Courts, the Court after hearing the Suspect may discharge the recognizance and order the Suspect to give, for the unexpired portion of the term of the recognizance, fresh security for the unexpired portion of the same description as the original security.

(4) An order made under subsection (3) of this Section shall, for the purposes of Sections 79, 80, 81 and 82 of this Law, be deemed to be an order under Section 76 of this Law.

PART VIII

PUBLIC NUISANCE

88. Conditional order for removal of nuisance.

Where a Court considers, on receiving a police report or other information and on taking such evidence, if any, as It deems fit, that an offence relating to public nuisance is being committed, the Court may make a conditional order requiring the Suspect:

- (a) within a time fixed in the order to cease committing the offence and to amend or remove the cause of the nuisance in such manner as is Specified in the order; or

- (b) to appear before the Court at a time and place to be fixed by the order and apply to have the order set aside or modified in the manner hereinafter provided.

89. Service of Order.

- (1) An Order made under Section 86 of this Law shall, if practicable, be served on the Suspect against whom it is made in the manner provided for the service of a summons.

- (2) Where an Order referred to in subsection (1) cannot be served in the manner laid down in that subsection, it may be served by registered courier, addressed to the Suspect against whom it is made at his last known address or, where his last address is not known, then by affixing a notice in some conspicuous place in the town or village or near which the nuisance or offence is being committed.

90. Suspect to whom order is addressed to obey or appear before court

A Suspect against whom an Order under Section 88 of this Law is made shall:

- (a) perform, within the time and in the manner specified in the order, the act directed by the order; or

- (b) appear in accordance with the Order and apply to have the order set aside or modified.

91. consequences of failure to obey order or to appear.

- (1) Where the Court making an Order under Section 88 of this Law considers that immediate measures should be taken to prevent imminent danger or injury of a serious kind to the public, it may issue such further Order to the Suspect against whom the Order was made as is required to obviate or prevent the danger or injury pending the determination of the matter.

- (2) In default of the Suspect referred to in subsection (1) of this Section immediately disobeying the further order referred to in that subsection or if notice of the order cannot, by the exercise of due diligence, be served on him immediately, the Court may use or cause to be used such means as it thinks fit to obviate the danger or to prevent the injury.

92. Prohibition of repetition or continuance of nuisance.

A Court may, in any proceeding under this Part or in any criminal proceeding in respect of a public nuisance, order any Suspect not to repeat or continue the public nuisance.

PART IX

ATTACHMENT WHERE A PERSON DISOBEYS (SUMMONS OR WARRANT)

93. Attachment of property of suspect absconding.

A Judge or a Magistrate may, at any time after action has been taken under Section 60 of this Law or on an application made in that regard after summons or warrant has been issued but disobeyed, Order the attachment of any property, movable or immovable or both, belonging to a Suspect the subject of the public summons or warrant.

94. Order to attach property.

(1) An Order under Section 93 of this Law shall authorize a public Officer named in it to attach any property belonging to a Suspect named in the Order as the owner of the property within the area of jurisdiction of the Judge or Magistrate by seizure or in any other manner by which for the time being the property may be attached by way of civil process.

(2) Where a Suspect who is the subject of an Order does not appear within the time specified in the public summons, the property under attachment shall be at the disposal of the Court.

(3) Any property under attachment shall not be sold until the expiration of three months from the date of the attachment unless it is subject to speedy decay or the Judge or Magistrate considers that the sale would be for the benefit of the owner, in either of which cases the Judge or Magistrate may cause it to be sold whenever he thinks fit.

95. Restoration of attached property.

(1) Where within one year from the date of the attachment, a Suspect, whose property is or has been at the disposal of the Court under Section 94 of this Law, appears voluntarily or being arrested is brought before the Court and proves to its satisfaction that he:

(a) did not abscond or conceal himself for the purpose of avoiding execution of the warrant; and

(b) had no notice of the public summons or warrant as to enable him to attend within the time specified therein, that property, so far as it has not been sold, and the net proceeds of any part of it which has been sold shall, after satisfying from the proceeds all costs incurred in consequence of the attachment, be delivered to him.

96. Issue of warrant in lieu of or in addition to summons.

- (1) A Court issuing a summons for the appearance of a Suspect under this law may, after recording reasons in writing, issue a warrant for his arrest in addition to or instead of the summons where:
 - (a) before or after the issue of the summons, the Court sees reason to believe that the Suspect has absconded or will not obey the summons; or
 - (b) at the time fixed for his appearance, the Suspect fails to appear and the summons is proved to have been duly served in time to allow for his appearance and no reasonable excuse is offered for his failure to appear.
- (2) A Court issuing a warrant for the arrest of a Suspect under this may issue summons in place of a warrant where he thinks fit.

97. Power to take bond for appearance

Where a Suspect for whose appearance or arrest a summons or warrant may be issued is present before a Court, the Court may require him to execute a bond, with or without sureties, for his appearance before a Court.

98. Provisions of this Part generally applicable to summons and warrant.

The provisions contained in this Part relating to summonses and warrants and their issue, service and execution shall, so far as may be, apply to every summons and every warrant issued under this Law.

PART X

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CRIMINAL TRIALS AND INQUIRIES IN GENERAL

99. Application

The provisions of Parts 9 to 44 of this Law shall apply to all criminal trials and proceedings unless express provision is made in respect of any particular Court or form of trial or proceedings.

100. General authority to bring suspect before a court.

A Court shall have authority to compel the attendance before it of a Suspect who is outside the jurisdiction but is charged with an offence committed within the State.

101. Right of making complaint.

- (1) A person may make a complaint against any other person alleged to have committed or to be committing an offence.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other Law, a Police Officer may make a complaint in a case of assault even though the party aggrieved declines or refuses to make a complaint.

102. Form of complaint.

- (1) It is not necessary that a complaint shall be in writing, unless It is required to be so by the Law on which It is founded, or by some other Law, and where a complaint is not made in writing, the registrar shall reduce it into writing.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of Section 69 of this Law, a complaint may, unless some Laws otherwise requires, be made without oath.
- (3) A complaint may be made by the complainant in person, or by a legal practitioner representing him, or by any person authorized in writing in that behalf.
- (4) A complaint shall be for one offence only, or for a number of offences disclosed in one transaction or events, but the complaint shall not be voided by describing the offence, or any material act relating to it in alternative words according to the language of the Law constituting such offence.

- (5) All complaints made to the Court directly under this Section may first be referred to the police for investigation before any action is taken by the Court provided the referral shall include an order not to detain the Suspect before investigation.
- (6) After the investigation the police shall charge the Suspect to Court where the punishment for the offence is less than 3 years or refer the matter to the Attorney-General where the offence attracts more than 3 years imprisonment.
- (7) Any complaint which is based on a civil cause shall not be entertained save such complaints have obvious criminal elements,

103. Form of documents in criminal proceedings

A complaint, summons, warrant or any other document laid, issued or made for the purpose of or in connection with any proceedings before a Court for an offence, shall be sufficient if it contains a Statement of the specific offence with which the Suspect is charged, together with such particulars as may be necessary for giving reasonable information as to the nature of the charge.

104. Rules as to statement of exception.

Any exception, exemption, proviso, condition, excuse, or qualification may be proved by the Defendant, but need not be specified or refuted in the complaint, and where so specified or refuted, no proof in relation to the matter so specified or refuted shall be required on the part of the complainant.

105. Limitation of period for making a private complaint.

In every case where no time is specially limited for making a complaint for a summary conviction for an offence in the Law relating to such offence, such complaint, if made other than by a person in his official capacity, shall be made within two (2) years from the time when the matter of such complaint arose, and not after.

PART XI

PLACE OF TRIAL OR INQUIRY

106. Venue Generally

- (1) An offence shall ordinarily be inquired into and tried by a Court within the local limits of its jurisdiction if:
- (a) the offence was wholly or in part committed, or some act forming part of the offence was done within its jurisdiction;
 - (b) the consequence of the offence has ensued within its jurisdiction;
 - (c) some offence was committed by reference to which the offence is defined; or
 - (d) a person against whom, or property in respect of which, the offence was committed is found, having been transported there by the Suspect or by a person having knowledge of the offence.
- (2) A criminal charge shall be filed and tried in the division or District where the alleged offence was committed unless it can be shown that it is convenient to do otherwise for administrative, security or other reasons.

107. Offence committed on a journey

An offence committed while the Suspect is in the course of performing a journey or voyage may be tried or inquired into by a Court in the State, division or District of whose jurisdiction the Suspect or the person against whom or the thing in respect of which the offence was committed resides, is or passed in the course of that journey or voyage.

108. Offence commenced and completed in different states

Where an offence:

- (a) is commenced in the State and completed in another State, or
- (b) is completed in the State after being commenced in another State, the Suspect may be tried and punished as if the offence had actually or wholly been committed in the State.

109. Chief Judge to decide question as to court of inquiry or place of trial.

Where a question arises as to which of the two or more Courts of the State ought to inquire into or try any offence, it shall be decided by the Chief Judge.

110. Chief Judge may transfer a case.

- (1) The Chief Judge may, where it appears to him that the transfer of a case will promote the ends of justice or will be in the interest of the public peace, transfer any case from one Court to another.
- (2) The power of the Chief Judge referred to in subsection (1) of this Section shall not be exercised where the prosecution has called witnesses unless there are compelling reasons.
- (3) Where the Chief Judge is to exercise this power subsequent to a petition, the Chief Judge shall cause the petition to be Investigated by an independent body of not more than three reputable legal practitioners within one week of receipt of such petition.
- (4) The investigating body shall submit its report within two weeks of appointment except otherwise specified.

111. When case may be remitted to another court

A Court before which a person charged with having committed an offence is brought shall, where:

- (a) the offence ought to be properly inquired into or tried by another Court; or
- (b) in the opinion of the Court, the offence ought to be conveniently inquired into or tried by another Court, within a reasonable period not exceeding 7 days, send the case and all processes relating to the case to the head of Court for reassignment to that other Court, and where appropriate, remand the Defendant charged in custody or require him to give security for his attendance before that other Court to answer the charges and to be dealt with accordingly.

112. Removal under warrant

- (1) Where a Suspect is to be remanded in custody, a warrant shall be issued by the remitting Court and that warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to:

- (a) receive and detain the Suspect named in the warrant; and
 - (b) produce him to the Court to which the Suspect charged is remitted.
- (2) The person to whom the warrant is directed shall execute it according to its terms without any delay.

113. Transfer of case where cause of complaint has arisen out of jurisdiction of court

Where a Suspect is:

- (a) in custody and the Court directing a transfer thinks it expedient that the custody should be continued, or
- (b) not in custody, that he should be placed in custody, the Court shall, by its warrant, commit the Suspect to Custodial Centre for a period not exceeding 14 days, subject to such security as it may deem appropriate in the circumstances, until he can be taken before a Court wherein the cause of complaint arose, or is to be dealt with.

114. Court may assume jurisdiction under certain conditions.

- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 107 and 111 of this Law, a Judge or Magistrate of a Division or District in which a Suspect:
- (a) is arrested and charged with an offence, alleged to have been committed in another Division or District;
 - (b) is in custody on the charge; or
 - (c) has appeared in answer to summons lawfully issued charging the offence, may, where he considers that justice would be better served and having regards to the accessibility and convenience of the witnesses, proceed to hear the charge, try and punish the Suspect as if the offence had been committed in the Division or District.
- (2) The offence referred to in subsection (1) of this section shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been committed in that Division or District.

- (3) Where a Judge or Magistrate having commenced the hearing of a matter to the close of the prosecution's case in a Division or District, and is transferred to another Division or District, the Judge or Magistrate shall continue hearing the case in the Division or District where the case commenced.

115. Assumption of jurisdiction after commencement of proceedings.
Where a case is commenced in any other division or District than that in which it ought to have been commenced, the Court may assume jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of Section 114 of this Law and all acts performed and all decisions given by the Court during the trial or any other proceeding shall be deemed to be valid in all respect as if the jurisdiction had been assumed prior to the performance of the acts and the giving of the decisions.

PART XII
POWERS OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

116. Charge by the Attorney General.

- (1) The Attorney-General may prefer a charge in any Court in respect of an offence created by a Law of the State House of Assembly.
- (2) The Attorney-General may authorize any other person to exercise any or all the powers conferred on him under this Section.

117. Issuance of legal advice and other directives to the police.

- (1) The Attorney-General may issue legal advice or such other directive to the Police or any other Law enforcement agency in respect of an offence created by a Law of the State House of Assembly within 21 days of the receipt of the case file .
- (2) Where any proceeding is pending in respect of the offence for which legal advice or other direction referred to in subsection (1) of this section is given, a copy of the legal advice or direction shall be forwarded by the Attorney General or Director of Public Prosecutions to the Court before whom the proceeding is pending.
- (3) The Attorney-General may request from the Police or any other agency for the case file in any matter and the Police or other agency shall immediately send the case file as requested.

118. Prosecution of offences.

 - (a) the Attorney-General or a Law Officer in his Ministry or Department;
 - (b) a legal practitioner authorized by the Attorney-General or any other person;

- (c) a legal practitioner authorized to prosecute by this Law or any other Law of the State House of Assembly.
- (2) On receipt of a complaint relating to the Commission of an offence punishable with death, or such other offence(s) as may be specified by the Governor and published in the State gazette, the Attorney-General shall assign a Law Officer to investigate the said offence(s) in conjunction with the police
- (3) It shall be the responsibility of the Commissioner of Police of the State to, within 7 days of the commission of any offence covered by subsection 2 of this section, notify the Attorney-General.

PART XIII
CONTROL OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS
BY THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

119. Discontinuance of criminal cases.

- (1) In any criminal proceeding for an offence created by a Law of the State House of Assembly, and at any stage of the proceeding before judgment, the Attorney-General may discontinue the proceedings either by stating in Court or informing the Court in writing that the Attorney-General intends that the proceeding should be discontinued and, the Defendant shall immediately be discharged in respect of the charge or information for which the discontinuance is entered.
- (2) Where the Defendant:
 - (a) has been committed to Custodial Centre, he shall be released; or
 - (b) is on bail, the recognizance shall be discharged.
- (3) Where the Defendant is not:
 - (a) before the Court when the discontinuance is entered, the registrar or other proper Officer of the Court shall immediately cause notice in writing of the entry of the discontinuance to be given to the Officer in charge of the Custodial Centre or other place in which the Defendant may be detained and the notice shall be sufficient authority to discharge the Defendant; or
 - (b) in custody, the Court shall immediately cause notice in writing to be given to the Defendant and his sureties and shall in either case cause a similar notice in writing to be given to any witness bound over to testify.
- (4) Where discontinuance is entered in accordance with the provisions of this Section, the discharge of a Defendant shall not operate as a bar to any subsequent proceeding against him on account of the same facts.

120. Withdrawal from prosecution in trials and inquiries before a court.

- (1) In any trial or proceeding before a Court, a Prosecutor may, on the instruction of the Attorney-General in case of offences against a Law of the State House of Assembly, at any stage before judgment is pronounced, withdraw the charge against any Defendant either generally or in respect of one or more of the offences with which the Defendant is charged.
- (2) Where the withdrawal is made:
 - (a) before the Defendant is called upon to make his defence, he shall be discharged of the offence; and
 - (b) after the Defendant is called upon to make his defence, he shall be acquitted of the offence.
- (3) In any trial before a Court in which the Prosecutor withdraws in respect of the prosecution of an offence before the Defendant is called upon to make his defence, the Court may, in its discretion, Order the Defendant to be acquitted if it is satisfied, on the merits of the case, that the order is a proper one, and when an order of acquittal is made, the Court shall endorse its reasons for making the order on the record.
- (4) Where a private Prosecutor withdraws from a prosecution for an offence under the provisions of this Section, the Court may, in its discretion, award costs against the Prosecutor.
- (5) A discharge of a Defendant under this Section shall not operate as a bar to subsequent proceedings against him on account of the same facts, except as otherwise provided under this Section.

PART XIV

INSTITUTION OF PROCEEDINGS

121. Different methods of instituting criminal proceedings.

- (3) Upon receipt of such return, the recipient shall take such steps as are necessary to address the issues raised in the return in furtherance of the purpose of this Law.

PART XV

FIRST INFORMATION REPORT

124. Procedure for receiving complaint and First Information Report

- (1) Where a complaint is brought before a Police Officer in charge of a police station concerning the commission of an offence and is:
 - (a) one for which the police are authorized to arrest without a warrant, and
 - (b) triable by a Judge within which jurisdiction the police station is situated, the police shall, if the complaint is made orally, reduce the complaint or cause it to be reduced into writing in the Police Diary.
- (2) The complaint, whether given in writing or orally shall be reduced in writing into the Police Diary and read or cause to be read over to the complainant and every such complaint shall be signed by the Officer receiving the complaint.
- (3) where on any other ground the Officer in charge of a police station has reason to Suspect the commission of an offence referred to in subsection (1), he shall enter or cause to be entered the grounds of his suspicion in a Police Diary.
- (4) Where the Officer is satisfied that no public Interest may be served by prosecuting, he may refuse to accept the complaint provided that he notifies the complainant of his right to complain to a Court under Section 122 (a) of this Law.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (2) of this Section, the Officer in charge of a police station may, if in his opinion the matter might more conveniently be inquired into by an Officer in charge of another police station, refer the complaint to such other police station.
- (6) After complying with the provisions of subsection (3) of this Section, the Officer in charge of the police station shall act as follows:

- (a) he shall forthwith proceed to the scene and investigate the case and if the Suspect is not in custody, take such steps as may be necessary for the discovery and arrest of the Suspect or he may direct a Police Officer subordinate to him to do so and report to him;
- (b) in cases involving death or serious injury to any person, the Officer in charge of the police station shall arrange, if possible, for the person to be taken to the nearest hospital for such further examination as may be necessary;
- (c) where the complaint is given against a person by name and the alleged offence is not of a serious nature, the Officer in charge of a police station need not make or direct investigation on the spot;
- (d) in the cases mentioned in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the Officer in charge of the police station shall record in the book referred to in subsection (2) and in the First Information Report to the Court his reason for not entering on an investigation or for not making or directing investigation on the spot or not investigating the case;
- (e) where after the investigation, it appears that the complaints against the Suspect are unfounded, the investigation shall be terminated and this fact shall be recorded in the Police Diary mentioned in subsection (2) of this Section; and
- (f) where the Officer considers that the prosecution of the alleged offence will serve the public interest, the Officer shall reduce the complaint into the prescribed form called First Information Report and the Officer shall take the alleged Suspect with the First Information Report before a Judge within whose jurisdiction the police station is situated.
- (7) Where the Suspect appears or is brought before the Magistrate, Sharia or High Court Judge, the particulars of the offence of which he is accused shall be read to him and he shall be asked if he has any cause to show why he should not be tried by the Judge.
- (8) Where upon hearing the information, the alleged Suspect admits the commission of the offence contained in the First Information Report, his admission shall be recorded as near as possible in the words used by him and if he shows no sufficient cause why he should not be convicted, the or Judge may convict him accordingly and in that case it shall not be necessary to frame a formal charge.

- (9) Where the Suspect denies the allegation against him and States that he intends to show cause why he should not be convicted, the Judge shall proceed to hear the complainant and take such evidence as may be produced in support of the prosecution and the Suspect shall be at liberty to cross-examine the witnesses for the prosecution and if he so does, the Prosecutor may re-examine the witnesses where necessary.
- (10) Where the evidence referred to in subsection (9) of this Section has been taken or at any stage of the case, the Magistrate, Shari`ah Court Judge or Judge is of the opinion that there is ground that the Suspect has committed an offence triable under this part, which such Magistrate, Shari'a Courts is competent to try and which, in the opinion of the Magistrate, Shari`ah Court Judge or Judge could be adequately punished, the Magistrate, Shari`ah Court Judge or Judge shall frame a charge stating the offence and direct that the Suspect be tried in another Magistrate, Shari' a and Customary Court.
- (11) Where in the proceeding before a Magistrate or Shari'a Courts, the Court, at any stage before judgment, is of the opinion that the case is one which ought to be tried by the High Court, he shall transfer the case along with the Suspect to a High Court for trial upon a charge in accordance with the provisions of this Law.

PART XVI

ENFORCING APPEARANCE OF SUSPECTS

125. Compelling appearance of suspect.

A Court may issue a summons or warrant as provided in this Law to compel the appearance before it of a suspect accused of having committed an offence in any place, whether within or outside the State, triable In the State.

126. Summons and warrants.

In every case, the Court may proceed either by way of summons to the Defendant or by way of warrant for his arrest In the First instance according to the nature and circumstances of the case.

127. Making of complaint and issue of process.

(1) Subject to the provisions of Section 105 of this Law, a person who believes from a reasonable or probable cause that an offence has been committed by another person whose appearance a Magistrate or Shari'a Court Judge has power to compel, may make a complaint of the commission of the offence to a Magistrate or Shari'a Court Judge who shall consider the allegations of the complainant and may:

- (a) in his discretion, refuse to issue a process and shall record his reasons for such refusal; or
 - (b) issue a summons or warrant as he shall deem fit to compel the attendance of the Defendant before a Magistrate Court in the District.
- (2) The Magistrate, Alkali or Judge shall not refuse to issue a summons or warrant only because the alleged offence is one for which a Suspect may be arrested without warrant.

PART XVII

ISSUANCE, FORM AND SERVICE OF SUMMONS

128. Issuance and service

A summons may be issued or served on any day, including a Sunday or public holiday.

129. Issuance of summons and its contents.

Where a complaint is made before a Magistrate, Alkali or Judge as provided in Section 128 of this Law and the Magistrate, Alkali or Judge decides to issue a summons, the summons shall be directed to the Suspect, stating concisely the substance of the complaint and requiring him to appear at a certain time and place not less than 48 hours after the service of the summons before the Court to answer to the complaint and to be further dealt with according to Law.

130. Hearing by consent before return date of summons.

The Court may, if it deems fit and with the consent of the parties, hear and determine a complaint notwithstanding that the time within which the Defendant was required to appear may not have elapsed.

131. Summons with immediate return date in special circumstances

Where, on a complaint being made before a Magistrate, Alkali or Judge as provided in Section 128 of this Law, the Magistrate, Alkali or Judge decides to issue a summons, the Defendant may be directed to appear immediately in cases where an affidavit is made by the complainant either at the time of making the complaint or subsequently that the Defendant is likely to leave the District within 48 hours.

- (f) any arm of the armed forces, to the Director of Legal Services of the Service or Command concerned.

136. Service where person summoned cannot be found.

Where service in the manner provided by Section 135(a) of this Law cannot, by the exercise of due diligence, be effected, the serving officer may, with leave of the Court, affix one of the duplicates of the summons to some conspicuous part of the premises or place in which the individual to be served ordinarily resides or works, and on doing so the summons shall be deemed to have been duly served.

137. Service on public Officers.

- (1) Where a public Officer is to be served with a summons, the Court issuing the summons may send it in duplicate to the Officer in charge of the department in which the person is employed for the purpose of being served on the person, if it appears to the Court that it may be most conveniently so served.
- (2) The Officer in charge of the department shall, on receiving the summons, cause it to be served in the manner provided by Section 135 (b) of this Law and shall return the duplicate to the Court under his signature, with the endorsement required by Section 140 of this Law, which signature shall be evidence of the service.

138. Service outside jurisdiction of court.

Where a Court issues summons to a person outside its jurisdiction or Bauchi State, the summons shall be sent in duplicate to a Court in whose jurisdiction the person resides or works.

139 Proof of service when serving officer not present.

Where the Officer who served a summons is not present at the hearing of the case, proof of service may be done by endorsement on a duplicate of the summons and by an affidavit showing when and how the service was effected.

140. Receipt of service of summons.

- (1) Where a summons has been served on the person to whom it is addressed or is delivered to any other person, the person to whom it is addressed or the person to whom it is delivered, as the case may be, shall acknowledge receipt at the back of the duplicate.
- (2) Where service is not effected by delivering the summons to an individual but by some other method under this Law, the person effecting service shall endorse on the duplicate particulars of the method by which he effected service.

141. Person refusing to sign receipt may be arrested.

A person who is required to sign a receipt on the back of a duplicate summons to the effect that he has received the summons and fails to sign the receipt may be:

- (a) arrested by the person serving the summons or any other person with powers of arrest under this Law and taken before the Court which issued the summons; and
- (b) detained in custody or committed to Custodial Centre for such time not exceeding 14 days as the Court may deem fit.

142. Proof of service.

An affidavit or declaration made before a Court by the serving Officer or by a witness to the service or return slip of a registered courier service company that a summons has been served and a duplicate of the summons endorsed, by the person to whom it was delivered or tendered or with whom it was left is admissible in evidence and the Statements made in it is deemed to be correct unless the contrary is proved.

143. Summons disobeyed; warrant may be issued.

Where the Court is satisfied that the Suspect has been served with a summons and the Suspect does not appear at the time and place appointed in and by the summons and his personal attendance has not been dispensed with under Section 148 of this Law, the Court may issue a warrant for his arrest and production before the Court.

144. Issue of warrant for suspect in the first instance.

Where a complaint is before a Magistrate, Alkali or a Judge as provided in this Law, and the Magistrate, Alkali or Judge decides to issue a warrant, he shall issue a warrant to arrest the Suspect and bring him before the Court to answer the complaint and be dealt with according to Law.

145. Application of Sections 53 to 67 to such warrant.

Where a warrant of arrest is issued in consequence of a complaint on oath as provided under Section 144 of this Law, the provisions of Sections 53 to 67 of this Law shall apply to such warrant.

146. Warrant may be issued before or after return date of summons.

Notwithstanding the issue of a summons as in Section 144 of this Law, a warrant may be issued at any time before or after the time appointed for the appearance of the Suspect.

147. Power to dispense with personal attendance of defendant in certain cases.

- (1) Where a Magistrate, Alkali or Judge issues a summon in respect of any offence for which the penalty is a fine not exceeding N300,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or both, the Magistrate, Alkali or Judge
 - (a) On application of the Defendant: (a) may dispense with his personal attendance; or
 - (b) where the offence is punishable by fine only, the Defendant may plead guilty in writing or by his legal practitioner.
- (2) The Magistrate, Alkali or Judge trying a case in which the presence of the Defendant has been dispensed with, may in his discretion, at any subsequent stage of the proceedings, direct the personal attendance of the Defendant and where necessary, enforce the attendance by means of the issuance of a warrant to arrest the Defendant and bring him before the Court.
- (3) Where a Magistrate, Alkali or Judge imposes a fine on a Defendant whose personal attendance has been dispensed with under this Section, the Magistrate, Alkali or Judge may at the same time direct that if the fine is not paid within a Stated time, the amount shall be recovered by distress or that the Defendant shall be imprisoned for a period calculated in accordance with the provisions contained in this Law for the non-payment of a fine.
- (4) Where the attendance of a Defendant is dispensed with and previous convictions are alleged against him not admitted in writing or through his legal practitioner, the Court may adjourn the proceedings and direct the personal attendance in the same manner as provided in subsection (2) of this Section.
- (5) Where the attendance of a Defendant has been dispensed with, and his attendance is subsequently required, the cost of any adjournment for that purpose shall be borne by him.

PART XVIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS REGARDING PROCESS

148. Irregularities in summons, warrant, service or arrest.

Where a Defendant is before a Court, whether voluntarily, or on summons, or after being arrested with or without warrant, or while in custody for the same or any other offence, the trial may be held notwithstanding:

- (a) any irregularity, defect, or error in the summons or warrant, or the issuing, service, or execution of the summons or warrant;
- (b) the want of any complaint on oath; or
- (c) any defect in the complaint, or any irregularity in the arrest or custody of the Defendant.

PART XXI

BAIL AND RECOGNISANCES GENERALLY

170. General entitlement of bail

When a person who is suspected to have committed an offence or is accused of an offence is arrested or detained, or appears or is brought before a Court, he shall, subject to the provisions of this Part, be entitled to bail.

171. Power of court to order person in custody to be brought before it.

- (1) Where a Suspect or Defendant is detained in a Custodial Centre, police station or any other place of detention, the Court may issue an Order to the Officer in charge of the Custodial Centre, police station or other place to produce the Suspect or Defendant at the time and date specified in the Order before the Court.
- (2) The Court may, on production of the person or subsequently, make such order or give such directives, as it considers appropriate in the circumstances in accordance with the provisions of this Law.

172. Recognizance by parent or guardian of a child.

- (1) Where a Child is arrested with or without warrant and cannot be brought forthwith before a Court, the Police Officer in immediate charge for the time being of the police station to which the Child is brought, shall inquire into the case and shall except:
 - (a) the charge is one of homicide;
 - (b) the offence charged is punishable with Imprisonment for a term exceeding three years;
 - (c) it is necessary in the interest of the Child to remove him from association with any reputed criminal or prostitute, release the Child on a recognizance entered into by his parent or guardian, with or without sureties.
- (2) The parents or guardian of the Child shall execute a bond for such an amount as will in the opinion of the Officer secure the attendance of the Child for the hearing of the charge.

173. Bail where a suspect is charged with capital offence

- (1) A Suspect arrested, detained or charged with an offence punishable with a term of 21 years or more, life imprisonment, or death, shall not be released on bail. He may, however be admitted to bail by a Judge of the High Court only under exceptional circumstances.
- (2) For the purpose of exercise of discretion in subsection (1) of this Section, “exceptional circumstance” includes:
 - (a) ill health of the applicant which shall be confirmed and certified by a qualified medical practitioner employed in a Government hospital, provided that the Suspect is able to prove that there are no medical facilities to take care of his illness by the authority detaining him;
 - (b) extraordinary delay in the investigation, arraignment and prosecution for a period exceeding two years; or
 - (c) any other circumstances that the Judge may, in the particular facts of the case, consider exceptional.

174. Bail where a defendant is charged with offence exceeding three years imprisonment

A Defendant charged with an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding three years may, on application to the Court, be released on bail except in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) where there is reasonable ground to believe that the Defendant will, where released on bail, commit the same or another offence;
- (b) attempt to evade his trial;
- (c) attempt to influence, intimidate witnesses, and or interfere with the investigation of the case;
- (d) attempt to conceal or destroy evidence;
- (e) undermine or jeopardize the objectives or the purpose or the functioning of the criminal justice administration, including the bail system;

- (f) any offence involving sexual misconduct, bodily harm of any kind, or affecting the well-being of a child.

175. Bail where a defendant is charged with offence not exceeding three years imprisonment

In any other circumstance other than those referred to in Sections 173 and 174 of this Law, the Defendant shall be entitled to bail, unless the Court sees reasons to the contrary.

176. Bail in respect of matters in other offences.

Where a Defendant is brought before a Court on any process in respect of any matter not included within Sections 170 to 175 of this Law, the person may, at the discretion of the Court, be released on his entering into recognizance, in the manner provided in this Law, for his appearance before the Court or any other Court at the time and place mentioned in the recognizance.

177. Conditions for bail

- (1) The conditions for bail in any case shall be at the discretion of the Court with due regard to the circumstances of the case and shall not be excessive.
- (2) The Court may require the deposit of a sum of money or other security as the Court may specify from the Defendant or his surety before the bail is approved.
- (3) The money or security deposited shall be returned to the Defendant or his surety or sureties, as the case may be, at the conclusion of the trial or on an application by the surety to the Court to discharge his recognizance.

178. Recognizance in respect of a child

Where in any case the Defendant in respect of whom the Court makes an order requiring that a recognizance be entered into is a Child, the Child shall not execute the recognizance but the Court shall require a parent, legal guardian or other fit person, with or without sureties, to enter into a recognizance that the Child shall do what is required under the Court's order.

179. Sureties

- (1) A Defendant admitted to bail may be required to produce such surety or sureties as, in the opinion of the Court, will be sufficient to ensure his appearance as and when required.

- (2) The Defendant or his surety or sureties may be required to enter into recognizance, accordingly.
- (3) A person shall not be denied, prevented or restricted from entering into a recognizance or standing as surety for any Defendant or applicant on the ground only that the person is a woman.

180. Judge may vary bail fixed by Magistrate or police

A Judge of a High Court may, other than in the circumstances mentioned in section 174, direct that the:

- (a) bail conditions required by a Magistrate's Court or Police Officer be reviewed; or
- (b) Defendant in custody in the State be admitted to bail.

181. Reconsideration of bail.

Where a Defendant has been admitted to bail and circumstances arise which, in the opinion of the Attorney-General would justify the Court in cancelling the bail or requiring a greater amount, a Court may, on application being made by the Attorney-General of the State, issue a warrant for the arrest of the Defendant and, after giving the Defendant an opportunity of being heard, may commit him to Custodial Centre to await trial, or admit him to bail for the same or an increased amount.

182. Before whom recognizance may be executed.

- (1) The terms of recognizance fixed by the Court in respect to any surety or sureties shall be processed in that Court.
- (2) the recognizance as mentioned in subsection (1) of this Section may be entered into by the parties before any other Court, any registrar, superior Police Officer, Officer in charge of a police station or any official in charge of a Custodial Centre.
- (3) recognizance entered into as prescribed in subsection (2) of this Section shall have the same effect as if they have been entered into before that Court.

183. Release on execution of recognizance

- (1) As soon as recognizance has been entered into in accordance with the provisions of Section 179 of this Law or money or other security deposited in the registry of the Court:
 - (a) the Defendant for whose appearance it has been entered into or security executed shall be released; and
 - (b) where he is in Custodial Centre or police station or other place of detention, the Court admitting him to bail shall immediately issue a written Order of release to the official in charge of the Custodial Centre or such other place of detention and the official on receipt of the Order shall immediately release him.
- (2) The release Order or any process in relation to it may be served in accordance with the relevant Law regulating service of processes in the Court, or by such person or courier company as the Chief Judge may authorize to serve criminal processes of the Court.
- (3) Nothing in this Section or in any other Section relating to bail is deemed to require the release of a Defendant liable to be detained for some matter other than that in respect of which the recognizance was entered into or to which the bail relates.
- (4) Nothing in this Section or in any other Section relating to bail is deemed to require the release of a Defendant liable to be detained for some matter other than that in respect of which the recognizance was entered into or to which the bail relates.

184. Mode of entering into recognizance

Whereas a condition for the release of any Defendant, he is required to enter into a recognizance with sureties, the recognizance of the sureties may be taken separately and either before or after the recognizance of the principal, and if so taken, the recognizance of the principal and sureties shall be as binding as if they had been taken together and at the same time.

185. Continuous bail

- (1) Where a Defendant is released on bail, the recognizance may be conditioned for his appearance at every time and place to which, during the course of the proceedings, the hearing may from time to time be adjourned.

- (2) The Court may, where the circumstances appear just:
- (a) vary the Order of release on bail of the Defendant at any subsequent hearing; and
 - (b) at any subsequent stage of any proceeding, cause a Defendant who has been released on bail to be arrested and be committed to custody:

PROVIDED that, the Judge shall State in his records the reason for the variation of the Order or Committal of the Defendant.

186. Defendant bound by recognizance to appear before court or police may be committed to Correctional Custodial Centre

Where an application is made before the Court by information on oath by a complainant, surety or other person that a Defendant bound by recognizance to appear before a Court or Police Officer:

- (a) is about to leave the State, or
- (b) for the purpose of evading justice, is about to leave or has left the division or District of the Court before which he is to appear or in which he normally resides, the Court may cause him to be arrested and may commit him to Custodial Centre until the trial, unless the Court considers it fit to admit him to bail on further recognizance.

187. Variation of a recognizance if surety unsuitable

Where a Defendant has been admitted to bail and circumstances arise which, if the Defendant had not been admitted to bail would, in the opinion of a Law Officer or Police Officer, justify the Court in refusing bail or in requiring bail of greater amount, a Court, may:

- (a) on the circumstances being brought to its notice by a Law Officer or Police Officer, issue a warrant for the arrest of the Defendant; and
- (b) after giving him an opportunity of being heard, commit him to Custodial Centre to await trial or admit him to bail for the same or an Increased amount as the Court may deem just.

188. Discharge of sureties.

Where at any time after a recognizance has been entered into, it appears to the Court that for any reason the surety or sureties are unsuitable, the Court may:

- (a) issue a summons or warrant for the appearance of the principal;
and
- (b) on his coming to the Court, order him to execute a fresh recognizance with other surety or sureties, as the case may be.

189. Order of fresh security upon original order

- (1) All or any of the Sureties to a recognizance may at any time apply to the Court which caused the recognizance to be taken to discharge the bond either wholly or so far as relates to the applicant.
- (2) On an application under subsection (1) of this Section, the Court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the Defendant on whose behalf the recognizance was executed and, on his appearance, shall discharge the recognizance either wholly or so far as relates to the Surety and shall require the Defendant to find other sufficient sureties or meet some other conditions and if he fails to do so, may make such order as it considers fit.

190. Forfeiture of recognisance

Where a Surety to a recognizance becomes insolvent or dies or where a recognizance is forfeited, the Court may order the Defendant from whom the recognizance was demanded to furnish fresh security in accordance with the directions of the original order and, if the security is not furnished, the Court may proceed as if there had been default in complying with the original order.

191. Forfeiture of recognisance

- (1) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court by which a recognizance has been taken or, when the recognizance bond is for appearance before a Court and it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that a recognizance has been forfeited, the Court shall record the grounds of proof and may call on any person bound by the bond to pay the penalty thereof or to show cause why it should not be paid.
- (2) Where sufficient cause is not shown and the penalty is not paid, the Court may proceed to recover the penalty from a person bound, or from his estate if he is dead, in the manner laid down in this Law for the recovery of fines.

- (3) A surety's estate shall only be liable under this Section if the surety dies after the recognizance is forfeited.
- (4) When the penalty is not paid and cannot be recovered in the manner provided in this Law, the person bound shall be liable to Imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.
- (5) The Court may at its discretion remit any portion of the penalty and enforce payment in part only.

192. Mitigation of forfeiture

The Court may at any time cancel or mitigate the forfeiture, on the person liable under the recognizance applying and giving security to the satisfaction of the Court, for the future performance of the condition of the recognizance and paying, or giving security for the payment of the costs incurred in respect of the forfeiture or on such other conditions as the Court may consider just.

193. Where defendant fails to find surety

Where a Defendant required by a Court to find sufficient sureties fails to do so, the Court, shall, unless it is just and proper in the circumstances, make some other order in the case of a Defendant:

- (a) charged with an offence and released on bail, an order committing him to Custodial Centre until he is brought to trial, discharged or finds sufficient sureties, or meets such other conditions as the Court may direct in the circumstances; or
- (b) ordered to give security for good behaviour, an order committing him to Custodial Centre for the remainder of the period for which he was originally ordered to give security or until he finds sufficient sureties.

194. Forfeiture on conviction

- (1) Where a recognizance to keep the peace and be of good behaviour or not to do or commit some act or thing, has been entered into by a Defendant as principal or as surety before a Court, a Court, on proof that the person bound by the recognizance as principal has been convicted of an offence which is by Law a breach of the condition of the recognizance, may order that the:

- (a) recognizance be forfeited; and
 - (b) persons bound by it, whether as principal or as sureties or any of those persons, shall pay the sums for which they are respectively bound.
- (2) A certified copy of the judgment of the Court by which the Defendant was convicted of the offence may be used as evidence in proceedings under this Section and, where the certified copy is so used, the Court shall presume the Defendant committed the offence until the contrary is proved.

195. Where recognizance forfeited warrant may be issued

Where a recognizance is ordered to be forfeited, the Court having jurisdiction over the matter, may, immediately or at any time after the order, issue a warrant of committal against a person liable, whether as principal or surety under the recognizance, for any term not exceeding the term prescribed in respect of a like sum in the scale of imprisonment set out In this Law except the amount due under the recognizance Is paid.

196. Arrest on failure to appear

Where a Defendant who is bound by a recognizance or bond to appear before a Court or Police Station does not so appear, the Court may issue a warrant for his arrest.

197. Payment on recognisance

All sums paid or recovered in respect of a recognizance order by a Court in pursuance of Section 192 of this Law to be forfeited shall be paid to the Treasury and a receipt issued which shall be produced in Court as evidence of payment.

198. Appeal

An Order of forfeiture made under this Law shall be subject to appeal.

199. Registration of bond persons

the possession of which has been transferred by one offence, and another accused of offences committed during a fight or series of fights arising out of another fight, and persons accused of abetting any of these offences.

221. Separate charges for distinct offences

For every distinct offence with which a Defendant is accused, there shall be a separate charge and every charge shall be tried separately except in the following Circumstances:

- (a) any three offences committed by a Defendant within 12 months whether or not they are of the same or similar character or whether or not they are in respect of the same person or persons;
- (b) any number of the same type of offence committed by a Defendant;
- (c) any number of offences committed by a Defendant in the course of the same transaction having regard to the proximity of the time and place, continuity of action and community of purpose; or
- (d) cases mentioned in Sections 223 to 228 of this Law.

222. Attempt same as substantive offences

An offence is deemed to be an offence of the same kind as an attempt to commit that offence where the attempt is itself an offence.

223. Trial for more than one offence

Where in one series of acts or omissions so connected together as to form the same transaction or which form or are part of a series of offences of the same or a similar character, more offences than one are committed by the same Defendant, charges for the offences may be joined and the Defendant tried for the offences at one trial.

224. Offences falling within two definitions

Where the acts or omissions alleged constitute an offence falling within two or more separate definitions in any Law for the time being in force under which offences are defined or punished, the Defendant accused of them may be charged with and tried at one trial for each of those offences.

225. Acts constituting one offence but constituting a different offence when combined

Where several acts or omissions, of one or more than one would by itself or themselves constitute an offence, when combined with a different offence, the Defendant accused of them may be charged with and tried at one trial for the offence constituted by those acts or omission when combined or for any offence constituted by any one or more of those acts.

226. Where it is doubtful which offence has been committed

Where a single act or omission or series of act; or omissions is of such a nature that it is doubtful which of several offences, the facts of which can be proved, will constitute the offence with which the Defendant may be charged with having committed all or any of those offences and any number of those charges may be tried at once or he may be charged in the alternative with having committed any of those offences.

227. Incidental offences in the same transaction

Where a single act or omission the fact or combination of facts constitutes more than one offence, the Defendant may be charged and tried at one trial for one or more of those offences.

PART XXIV

ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT OF CHARGES

228. Alteration and amendment of charge by permission of court

- (1) Where a Defendant is arraigned on an imperfect charge, a Court shall permit an alteration or amendment to the charge or framing of a new charge at any time before judgment is pronounced.
- (2) The Court may in appropriate cases frame a charge or add or alter the charge as the case may be having regard to the provisions of this Law.
- (3) An alteration or amendment of a new charge shall be read and explained to the Defendant and his plea to the amended or new charge shall be taken.

229. Procedure on alteration of charge

- (1) Where a new charge is framed or alteration made to a charge under the provisions of section 228 of this Law, the Court shall call on the Defendant to plead to the new or altered charge as if he has been arraigned for the first time.
- (2) The Court shall proceed with the trial as if the new or altered charge had been the original charge.

230. When court may proceed with trial immediately after altering, adding to or framing charge

- (1) Where the charge as revised under Section 228 or 229 of this Law is such that proceeding immediately with the trial is not likely in the opinion of the Court, to prejudice the Defendant in his defence or the Prosecutor, as the case may be, in the conduct of the case, the Court may in its discretion forthwith proceed with the trial as if the charge so revised had been the original charge.
- (2) Where a charge is so amended, a note of the order for amendment shall be endorsed on the charge, and the charge shall be treated, for the purpose of all proceedings in connection therewith, as having been made in the amended form.

231. Recall of witnesses when charge is revised

Where a charge is altered, amended or substituted after the commencement of the trial, the Prosecutor and the Defendant shall be allowed to recall or re-summon and examine any witness who may have been examined and to call any further witness, provided that such examination shall be limited to the alteration, amendment or substitution made.

232. Effect of error

An error in stating the offence or the particulars required to be stated in a charge or an omission to state the offence or those particulars, or any duplicity, mis-joinder or non-joinder of the particulars of the offence shall not be regarded at any stage of the case as material unless the Defendant was in fact misled by the error or omission.

233. Objection to a charge.

Objections shall not be taken or entertained during proceeding or trial on the ground of an imperfect or erroneous charge.

234. Effect of material error

- (1) Where an appellate Court is of the opinion that a Defendant convicted of an offence was misled in his defence by an error in the charge, which has occasioned a miscarriage of justice, it may direct that the trial be recommenced on another charge.
- (2) Where the appellate Court is of the opinion that the facts of the case are such that no valid charge could have been preferred against the Defendant in respect of the facts proved, it shall quash the conviction

PART XXV

CONVICTION WHEN CHARGED WITH ONE OF SEVERAL OFFENCES OR OF ANOTHER OFFENCE

235. Where defendant charged with one offence may be convicted of another

Where a Defendant is charged with one offence and it appears in evidence that he committed a similar offence with which he might have been charged under the provisions of this Law, he may be convicted of the offence, which he is shown to have committed although he was not charged with it.

236. Full offence charged; attempt proved

Where a Defendant is charged with an offence but the evidence establishes an attempt to commit the offence, he may be convicted of having attempted to commit that offence although the attempt is not separately charged.

237. Attempt charged-full offence proved

Where a Defendant is charged with an attempt to commit an offence but the evidence establishes the commission of the full offence he shall not be entitled to an acquittal but he may be convicted of the offence and punished accordingly.

238. Liability as to further prosecution

Where a Defendant has been convicted of an attempt under either Section 236 or 237 of this Law, he shall not subsequently be liable to be prosecuted for the offence for which he was convicted of attempting to commit.

239. On charge of an offence conviction as accessory after the fact to that or connected offence may follow

Where a Defendant is charged with an offence and the evidence establishes that he is an accessory after the fact to that offence or to some other offence of which a Defendant charged with the First mentioned offence may be convicted by virtue of any of the provisions of this Law, he may be convicted as an accessory after the fact to that offence or that other offence, as the case may be and be punished accordingly.

240. Defendant tried for lesser offence but a higher offence is proved

- (1) Where on the trial of a Defendant for a lesser offence it appears that the facts proved in evidence amount in Law to a higher offence not charged, the Defendant shall not by this reason be acquitted of the lesser offence.
- (2) The Defendant referred to in subsection (1) of this Section is not liable afterwards to be prosecuted for the higher offence proved, but the Court may in its discretion stop the trial of the lesser offence or direct that the Defendant be charged and tried for the higher offence, in which case, the Defendant may be dealt with In all respects as if he had not been put to trial for the lesser offence.
- (3) Where a charge is brought for the higher offence pursuant to this Section, the Defendant shall be tried before another Court.

241. Conviction of kindred offences relating to property

Where a Defendant is charged with an offence relating to property and the evidence establishes the commission by him with respect to the same property of another offence, he may be convicted of that other offence although he was not charged with it.

242. Defendant charged with burglary may be convicted of kindred offence

Where on trial for burglary, housebreaking or related offence, the facts proved in evidence justify a conviction for some other offences and not the offence with which the Defendant is charged, the Defendant may be convicted of the other offence and be punished as if he had been convicted on a charge with the offence.

243. On charge of rape conviction under defilement, incest, unnatural or indecent assault may follow

Where on a trial for rape, defilement, incest, unnatural or indecent offences against a person, the facts proved in evidence can ground conviction for an indecent assault and not the offence with which the Defendant is charged, he may be convicted of the offence of indecent assault, and be punished as if he had been convicted on a charge with the offence of indecent assault.

244. Procedure for trial on charge for certain offences

- (1) A trial for the offences referred to in subsection (4) of this Section may not, where the Court so determines, be held in an open Court.
- (2) The names, addresses, telephone numbers and identity of the victims of such offences or witnesses shall not be disclosed in any record or report of the proceedings and it shall be sufficient to designate the names of the victims or witnesses with a combination of letters of the alphabet.
- (3) Where in any proceeding the Court deems it necessary to protect the identity of the victim or a witness, the Court may take any or all of the following measures:
 - (a) receive evidence by video link or other electronic means;
 - (b) permit the witness to be screened or masked;
 - (c) receive written deposition of expert evidence; and
 - (d) any other measure that the Court considers appropriate in the circumstance.
- (4) The provision of this Section shall apply to:
 - (a) offences mentioned under Section 243 of this Law;
 - (b) offences of Armed Robbery, kidnapping, abduction and other crimes involving the use of or threat of violence;
 - (c) offences under the Terrorism (Prevention) Act and its amendments;
 - (d) offences relating to Economic and Financial Crimes; (e) trafficking in Persons and related offences; and
 - (f) any other offence in respect of which a Law of the State House of Assembly permits the use of such protective measures or as the Judge may consider appropriate in the circumstances.
- (5) Any contravention of the provisions of subsection (2) of this Section shall be an offence and liable on conviction to a minimum term of one year imprisonment.

245. Where homicide is charged and concealment of birth is proved

Where a Defendant is charged and tried for homicide of a Child or causing the death of an unborn Child and it appears on the evidence that the Defendant was not guilty of homicide of a Child or causing the death of an unborn Child, as the case may be, but was guilty of the offence of concealment of birth, the Defendant may be convicted of that offence.

246. Where homicide is charged and infanticide proved.

- (1) Where a Defendant is charged and tried for homicide of a newly-born Child and it appears on the evidence that the Defendant was not guilty of homicide but was guilty of causing the death of an unborn Child, the Defendant may be convicted of that offence.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this Section prevents a Defendant who is charged for the homicide of a newly-born Child from being:
 - (a) convicted of manslaughter;
 - (b) found guilty of concealment of birth; or
 - (c) acquitted on the ground that by virtue of an applicable Law he was not criminally responsible, and dealt with accordingly or in accordance with this Law or any other Law.

247. Where offence proved is not included in offence charged

- (1) Where a Defendant is charged with an offence consisting of several particulars, a combination of some of which constitutes a lesser offence in itself and the combination is proved but the remaining particulars are not proved, he may be convicted of, or plead guilty to the lesser offence although he was not charged with it.
- (2) Where the Defendant is charged with an offence and facts are proved which reduce it to a lesser offence, he may be convicted of the lesser offence although he was not charged with it.

248. Withdrawal of remaining charges on conviction on one of several charges

- (1) Where more than one charge is made against a defendant and a conviction has been had on one or more of them, the prosecutor may, with the consent of the court, withdraw the remaining charge(s), of its own motion and may stay the trial of its charge(s) A withdrawal has the effect of an acquittal on the charge(s) unless the conviction which has been had is set aside, in this case subject to any order of the court setting aside such conviction, the court before which the withdrawal was made may, on the request of the Prosecutor, proceed on the charge or the charges withdrawn.

PART XXVI

PREVIOUS ACQUITTAL OR CONVICTION

249. Defendant convicted or acquitted not to Be tried again for same or kindred offence

(1) Without prejudice to Section 238 of this Law, a Defendant charged with an offence is not liable to be tried for that offence where it is shown that he has previously been:

- (a) convicted or acquitted of the same offence by a competent Court;
- (b) convicted or acquitted by a competent Court on a charge on which he might have been convicted of the offence charged; or
- (c) convicted for or acquitted of an offence by a competent Court other than the offence charged, being an offence for which, apart from this Section, he might be convicted by virtue of being charged with the offence charged.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this Section shall prejudice the operation of a Law giving power to a Court, on an appeal, to set aside a verdict or finding of another Court and order a re-trial.

250. A defendant may be tried again on separate charge in certain cases

A Defendant acquitted or convicted of an offence may afterwards be tried for a distinct offence for which a separate charge might have been made against him on the previous trial under the provisions of Section 223 of this Law.

251. Consequences supervening or not known at previous trial

A Defendant acquitted or convicted of an offence constituted by an act or omission causing consequences which together with that act or omission constitute a different offence from that for which he was acquitted or convicted, may afterwards be tried for the last-mentioned offence if the consequences had not happened or were not known to the Court to have happened at the time when he was acquitted or convicted when the consequences create the offence of homicide or manslaughter.

PART XXVII

WITNESSES: COMPELLING ATTENDANCE AND TAKING OF OATH OR MAKING OF AFFIRMATION

252. Issuance of summons for witness

- (1) The Court may, on an application of the prosecution or the defence, issue a summon or writ of subpoena on a witness requiring him to attend Court to give evidence in respect of the case, and to bring with him any specified documents or things and any other document or thing relating to them which may be in his possession or power or under his control.
- (2) Where the Prosecutor is not a public Officer the person to whom the summons is addressed is not bound to attend unless his travelling expenses are paid to him.

253. Service of summons and other processes on witnesses

- (1) A Court with criminal jurisdiction shall have a process server specifically assigned to it.
- (2) The process server has the responsibility to effect efficient service of witness summons, Defendant's production orders, writs and all other processes issued in the Court in respect of all criminal matters.
- (3) A summons shall be served on the person to whom it is directed in the same manner as is set out in Section 135 or 136 of this Law or, with leave of the Court.
- (4) Section 138 and Sections 141 to 144 of this Law shall apply to the summons.
- (5) Service of processes may be effected by registered reputable courier companies, recognized and authorized by the Chief Judge in accordance with the provisions of this Law, and such registered courier companies may be assigned to the Courts with criminal jurisdiction as process servers in accordance with subsection (1) of this Section.

- (6) The Attorney-General or a person so authorized by him or the police may serve on a person whom the Prosecutor wishes to call as witness, a witness summons or writ of subpoena.
- (7) Proof of service of a process or document shall be endorsed by the recipient and the process server shall file the endorsed copy together with an affidavit of service.

254. Warrant for witness after summons

Where a witness summoned to give evidence does not:

- (a) attend Court at the time and place indicated on the Summons, and
- (b) provide any reasonable excuse for his non-attendance, then after proof that the summons was duly served on him, or that the person to be served willfully avoids service, the Court may issue a warrant to arrest and bring him before the Court.

255. Issue of warrant for witness

Where the Court is satisfied in the first instance, by proof on oath, that a person likely to give material evidence, either for the prosecution or for the defence, will not attend to give evidence without being compelled to do so, then, instead of issuing a summons, it may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person.

256. Mode of dealing with witness arrested under warrant

- (1) A witness arrested under a warrant shall, if practicable and where the hearing of the case for which his evidence is required is fixed for a time which is more than 24 hours after the arrest, be taken before a Magistrate and the Magistrate:
 - (a) may, on the witness furnishing security by recognizance to the satisfaction of the Magistrate for his appearance at the hearing, order him to be released from custody; or
 - (b) shall, on the witness failing to furnish the security, order him to be detained for production at the hearing.
- (2) The provisions of this Law relating to bail, summons and warrants in respect of the Defendant shall apply to witnesses.
- (3) A witness arrested or detained under this Section shall not be kept in the same room or place as the Defendant, if the Defendant is in custody and the Defendant shall not be allowed to make any contact with the witness.

257. Penalty on witnesses refusing to attend

- (1) A witness who:
- (a) refuses or neglects, without reasonable cause, to attend Court in compliance with the requirements of summons duly served in the manner prescribed by Law, or
 - (b) departs from the premises of the Court without the leave of the Judge or Magistrate hearing the case, is liable on summary conviction, to a fine not less than N50,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months.
- (2) A complaint shall not be made for an offence under this Section except by the order of the Court made during the hearing of the case for which the evidence of the witness is required.

258. Person in court may be required to give evidence though not summoned

A witness who is present when the hearing or further hearing of a case is adjourned, or who has been duly notified of the time and place to which the hearing or further hearing is so adjourned, shall attend any subsequent hearing and if he defaults, he may be dealt with in the same manner as if he had refused or neglected to attend the Court in obedience to a witness summons.

259. Manner of taking oath or affirmation

A person present in Court and compellable as a witness, whether a party or not in a cause, may be compelled by a Court to give evidence, and produce any document in his possession, or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce the document and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

260. Witness refusing to be sworn, or produce documents

A witness shall take an oath or make a solemn affirmation in such a manner as the Court considers binding on his conscience.

261. Witness refusing to be sworn, or produce documents

- (1) Where a person attending Court and who is required to give evidence, without any sufficient excuse or reason:
- (a) refuses to be sworn or to affirm as a witness;

- (b) having been sworn or having taken affirmation refuses to answer any question put to him; or
 - (c) refuses-or neglects to produce any document or anything which he is required by the Court to produce, the Court may adjourn the hearing of the case and may in the meantime by warrant, commit the person to Custodial Centre or other place of safe custody for a period not less than 30 days.
- (2) Nothing in this Section shall:
- (a) affect the liability of the person to any other punishment for refusing or neglecting to do what is so required of him; or
 - (b) prevent the Court from disposing of the case in the meantime according to any other sufficient evidence taken by it.

PART XXVIII

WITNESSES: EXPENSES

262. Expenses of witnesses for the prosecution

Where a person attends Court as a State witness, the witness shall be entitled to payment of such reasonable expenses as may be prescribed.

263. Expenses of witnesses for the defence

Where a person attends Court as a witness to give evidence for the defence, the Court may in its discretion on application, order payment by the Registrar to such witness of Court such sums of money, as it may deem reasonable and sufficient to compensate the witness for the expenses he reasonably incurred in attending the Court.

264. Adjournment may be granted subject to witnesses' cost

The Court may permit an application of a party for an adjournment of the proceedings and in so doing, may order the party seeking the adjournment to pay to a witness present in Court and whose evidence it has not been possible to take owing to the adjournment, such sum in the amount payable to a witness in accordance with Sections 262 and 263 of this Law, or such sum as the Court may fix.

265. Ascertainment of witnesses' expenses

The amount of the expenses payable to a witness pursuant to Sections 263 of this Law shall be processed and paid by the Registrar of the Court to the witness out of the relevant vote as appropriated by the Judiciary.

PART XXIX

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

266. Application of the Evidence Act

Subject to the provisions of any other Law, the examination of witnesses shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Evidence Act.

267. Power to call or recall witness

The Court may, at any stage of a trial, inquiry or other proceedings under this Law, either of its own motion or on application of either party to the proceeding, call a person as a witness or recall and re-examine a person already examined where his evidence appears to the Court to be essential to the just determination of the case.

268. Certificates of certain Government technical officers

A certificate signed by any of the Officers named in Section 55 of the Evidence Act, shall be admissible in evidence in accordance with the provisions of that Law.

269. Right of reply

In a case where the right or reply depends on the question whether evidence has been called for the defence, the fact that the Defendant charged has been called as a Witness shall not of itself confer on the prosecution the right of reply, but a Law Officer for the prosecution shall in all cases have the right of reply.

270. Public to have access to hearing

(1) Subject to the provisions of Section 244 and 272 to 274 of this Law and of any other Law specifically relating thereto, the room or place in which a trial is to take place under this Law shall be an open Court to which the public generally may have access as far as it can conveniently contain them.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this Section, the Judge or Magistrate presiding over a trial may, in his discretion and subject to the provisions of Section 271 of this Law, exclude the public at any stage of the hearing on the grounds of public policy, decency or expediency.

- (3) Where the Court is sitting in a place other than in a building, the authority given in subsection (2) of this Section to exclude the public shall be construed as being authority to prevent the public approaching so near to where the Court is sitting, as in the opinion of the Judge or Magistrate, to be able to hear what is taking place at the trial or be able to communicate with a person allowed to be present.

271. Court may exclude certain persons while taking evidence of a child or young person

- (b) his presence is required as a witness or otherwise for the purposes of justice in which event he may remain for so long as his presence is necessary.

274. Visit by court to locus.

- (1) Where it appears to the Court that in the interest of justice, the Court should have a view of any place, person or thing connected with the case, the Court may, where the view relates to a place, either adjourn the Court to that place and there continue the proceedings or adjourn the case and proceed to view the place, person or thing concerned.
- (2) The Defendant shall be present at the viewing of the place, person or thing concerned.
- (3) At the locus, the Court shall give directions as it may deem fit for the purpose of preventing communication between the witnesses and the Defendant.
- (4) A breach of a direction given under subsection (3) of this Section shall not affect the validity of the proceedings unless the Court otherwise directs.

275. Determination of age

- (1) Where the age of a person is in issue in any criminal proceeding, the Court may determine the question by taking into account one or both of the following:
 - (a) the apparent physical appearance of the person concerned;
 - (b) any evidence in relation to the age of the person concerned, received by the Court in accordance with the provisions of the Evidence Act, the Children and Young Persons Law, or any other Law in force.
- (2) The evidence of a witness, who is not an expert within the meaning of Section 68 of the Evidence Act, 2011, shall be admissible for the purpose of this Section.
- (3) An order or judgment of the Court shall not be invalidated by any subsequent proof that the age of the person has not been correctly stated to the Court, and the age presumed or declared by the Court to be the age of that person shall, for the purpose of this Law, be deemed to be the true age of that person.

276. Age in relation to offence

Where In a charge for an offence, it is alleged that the person by or in respect of whom the offence was committed, was a child under or above a specified age, and he appears to the Court to have been at the date of the commission of the alleged offence a child under or above the specified age, as the case may be, he shall, for the purposes of this Law, be presumed at that date to have been a child or to have been under or above that age, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved.

277. Presence of defendant at trial.

A Defendant shall, subject to the provisions of Section 147 of this Law, be present in Court during the whole of his trial unless:

- (a) he misconducts himself in such a manner as to render his continuing presence impracticable or undesirable; or
- (b) at the hearing of an interlocutory application.

278. Conduct of cases by legal practitioner for complainant or for defendant.

- (1) The complainant and Defendant shall be entitled to conduct their cases by a legal practitioner or in person except in a trial for a capital offence or an offence punishable with life imprisonment.
- (2) Where the Defendant is in custody or on remand, he shall be allowed access to his legal practitioner at all reasonable times.
- (3) Where the Defendant elects to defend himself in person, the Court shall inform him of his rights within the trial and the consequences of his election.
- (4) The Court shall ensure that the Defendant is represented by a counsel in capital offences provided that a Defendant who refuses to be represented by counsel shall, after being informed under Section 401 of this Law of the risks of defending himself in person, be deemed to have elected to defend himself in person and this shall not be a ground to void the trial.

279. General control of prosecution by the Attorney-General

- (1) Where a private legal practitioner prosecutes on behalf of the Attorney-General or a public Officer prosecuting in his official capacity in any criminal proceeding, the private legal practitioner or public Officer shall prosecute subject to such directions as may be given by the Attorney-General.
- (2) Where proceedings in respect of an offence are instituted by a Police Officer, it shall be in the name of the Police or Commissioner of Police.
- (3) Where a proceeding in respect of an offence is instituted on behalf of the Attorney-General, it shall be in the name of the People of Bauchi State.
- (4) The Attorney General of the Federation may delegate to the Attorney-General of the State powers conferred on him by this Section either generally or with respect to any offence or class of offences and such offence shall be prosecuted in the name of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.
- (5) Such powers so delegated to the Attorney General of a State may be exercised directly by him or any Officer in his Ministry or department.
- (6) Where proceedings in respect of an offence are instituted by an agency authorized by Law to prosecute, it shall do so in its name.

280. Position in court of person summoned

Where a Defendant appears before a Court on a summons, he shall be required to enter the dock, to stand or sit in it, except where Circumstances do not permit, as may be directed by the Court.

PART XXX

PLEA BARGAIN AND PLEA GENERALLY

281. Plea bargain requisites

- (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Law or in any other Law, the Prosecutor may:
 - (a) receive and consider a plea bargain from a Defendant charged with an offence either directly from that Defendant or on his behalf; or
 - (b) offer a plea bargain to a Defendant charged with an offence.
- (2) The prosecution may enter into plea bargain with the Defendant during or after the presentation of the evidence of the prosecution, but before the presentation of the evidence of the defence, provided that in any offence affecting the human body, the consent of the victim must first be sought and obtained before entering into a plea bargain.
- (3) Where the Prosecutor is of the view that the offer or acceptance of a plea bargain is in the interest of justice, the public interest, public policy and the need to prevent abuse of legal process, he may offer or accept the plea bargain.
- (4) The Prosecutor and the Defendant or his legal practitioner may, before the plea to the charge, enter into an agreement in respect of:
 - (a) the terms of the plea bargain which may include the sentence recommended within the appropriate range of punishment stipulated for the offence or a plea of guilty by the Defendant to the offence charged or a lesser offence of which he may be convicted on the charge; and
 - (b) an appropriate sentence to be imposed by the Court where the Defendant is convicted of the offence to which he intends to plead guilty.
- (5) The Prosecutor may only enter into an agreement contemplated in subsection (4) of this Section:

- (a) after consultation with the police responsible for the investigation of the case and the victim or his representative; and
- (b) with due regard to the nature of and circumstances relating to the offence, the Defendant and public interest;

PROVIDED that, in determining whether it is in the public interest to enter into a plea bargain, the prosecution shall weigh all relevant factors, including:

- (i) the Defendant's willingness to cooperate in the investigation or prosecution of others by providing relevant information for the prosecution of other Defendants,
 - (ii) the Defendant's history with respect to criminal activity,
 - (iii) the Defendant's remorse or contrition and his willingness to assume responsibility for his conduct,
 - (iv) the desirability of prompt and certain disposition of the case,
 - (v) the likelihood of obtaining a conviction at trial and the probable effect on witnesses,
 - (vi) the probable sentence or other consequences if the Defendant is convicted,
 - (vii) the need to avoid delay in the disposition of other pending cases,
 - (viii) the expense of trial and appeal, and
 - (ix) the Defendant's willingness to make restitution or returns the proceeds of the crime or pay compensation to the victim where appropriate.
- (6) The prosecution shall afford the victim or his representative the opportunity to make representations to the Prosecutor regarding:
- (a) the content of the agreement; and
 - (b) the inclusion in the agreement of a compensation or restitution order.

- (7) An agreement between the parties contemplated in subsection (4) of this Section shall be reduced to writing and shall:
- (a) state that, before conclusion of the agreement, the Defendant has been informed:
 - (i) that he has a right to remain silent,
 - (ii) (ii) of the consequences of not remaining silent, and
 - (iii) that he is not obliged to make any confession or admission that could be used in evidence against him;
 - (b) state fully, the terms of the agreement and any admission made;
 - (c) be signed by the Prosecutor, the Defendant, the legal practitioner and the interpreter, as the case may be; and
 - (d) a copy of the agreement forwarded to the Attorney-General
- (8) The presiding judge or Magistrate before whom the criminal proceedings are pending shall not participate in the discussion contemplated in subsection (4) of this Section.
- (9) Where a plea agreement is reached by the prosecution and the defence, the Prosecutor shall inform the Court that the parties have reached an agreement and the presiding judge or Magistrate shall then inquire from the Defendant to confirm the terms of the agreement.
- (10) The presiding judge or Magistrate shall ascertain whether the Defendant admits the allegation in the charge to which he has pleaded guilty and whether he entered into the agreement voluntarily and without undue influence and may where:
- (a) he is satisfied that the Defendant is guilty of the offence to which he has pleaded guilty, convict the Defendant on his plea of guilty to that offence, and shall award the compensation to the victim in accordance with the terms of the agreement which shall be delivered by the Court In accordance with Section 325 of this Law; or
 - (b) he is for any reason of the opinion that the Defendant cannot be convicted of the offence in respect of which the agreement was reached and to which the Defendant has pleaded guilty or that the agreement is in conflict with the Defendant's right referred to In subsection (7) of this Section, he shall record a plea of not guilty in respect of such charge and order that the trial proceed.

- (11) Where a Defendant has been convicted under subsection (10) (a), the presiding judge or Magistrate shall consider the sentence as agreed upon and where he is:
- (a) satisfied that such sentence is an appropriate sentence, impose the sentence;
 - (b) of the view that he would have imposed a lesser sentence than the sentence agreed, impose the lesser sentence; or
 - (c) of the view that the offence requires a heavier sentence than the sentence agreed upon, he shall inform the Defendant of such heavier sentence he considers to be appropriate.
- (12) The presiding Judge or Magistrate shall make an order that any money, asset or property agreed to be forfeited under the plea bargain shall be transferred to and vest in the victim or his representative or any other person as may be appropriate or reasonably feasible.
- (13) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Sheriffs and Civil Process Law, the Prosecutor shall take reasonable steps to ensure that any money, asset or property agreed to be forfeited or returned by the offender under a plea bargain are transferred to or vested in the victim, his representative or other person lawfully entitled to it.
- (14) Any person who, wilfully and without just cause, obstructs or impedes the vesting or transfer of any money, asset or property under this Law, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for 5 years without an option of fine.
- (15) Where the Defendant has been informed of the heavier sentence as contemplated in subsection (11) (c) of this Section, the Defendant may:
- (a) abide by his plea of guilty as agreed upon and agree that, subject to the Defendant's right to lead evidence and to present argument relevant to sentencing, the presiding judge or Magistrate proceed with the sentencing; or

(b) withdraw from his plea agreement, in which event the trial shall proceed de novo before another presiding judge or Magistrate, as the case may be.

(16) Where a trial proceeds as contemplated under subsection (15),

(a) no references shall be made to the agreement;

(b) no admission contained therein or statements relating thereto shall be admissible against the Defendant; and

(c) the Prosecutor and the Defendant shall not enter into a similar plea and sentence agreement.

282. Plea to charge

(1) Before a Defendant takes his plea, the Court shall inform him his rights under the provisions of Section 281 of this Law.

(2) The Defendant to be tried on a charge shall be:

(a) brought before the Court unfettered unless the Court sees cause otherwise to order and the charge shall be read over and explained to him to the satisfaction of the Court by the registrar or other Officer of the Court; and

(b) called upon to plead instantly unless, where the person is entitled to service of the charge, he objects to the non-service and where the Court finds that he has not been duly served.

(3) The Court shall record the fact that it is satisfied that the Defendant understands the charge read over and explained to him in the language he understands, and shall record the plea of the Defendant to the charge as nearly as possible in the words used by him.

283. Proof of previous conviction

Where the fact of a previous conviction of a Defendant is a fact in issue, the prosecution shall prove the same in accordance with the provisions of the Evidence Act.

284. Effect of plea of not guilty

A Defendant who pleads not guilty shall be deemed to have put himself to trial.

285. Effect of plea of guilty

- (1) Where a Defendant pleads guilty to an offence with which he is charged, the Court shall:
 - (a) record his plea as nearly as possible;
 - (b) Invite the prosecution to state the facts of the case; and
 - (c) enquire from the Defendant whether his plea of guilty is to the fact as stated by the prosecution;
- (2) Where the Court is satisfied that the Defendant intends to admit the truth of all the essential elements of the offence for which he has pleaded guilty, the Court shall convict and sentence him or make such order as may be necessary, unless there shall appear sufficient reason to the contrary.
- (3) Where the Defendant pleads guilty to a capital offence, a plea of not guilty shall be recorded for him.

286. Amending charge where defendant pleads guilty to offence not charged Without prejudice to other provisions of this Law, where the Defendant pleads guilty to an offence not contained in the charge on which he was arraigned, the Court shall direct the prosecution to amend the charge accordingly to include the admitted offence, in which case, a fresh plea of the Defendant shall be taken on the amended charge.

287. Failure to plead due to malice or otherwise

- (1) Where the Defendant, when called upon to plead remains silent or refuses to answer, the Court shall enter a plea of not guilty on his behalf.
- (2) A plea entered under subsection (1) of this Section shall have the same effect as if the Defendant actually pleaded to the charge.
- (3) The Court may inquire into the mental state of the Defendant, and if the Court is satisfied that the Defendant is of sound mind, the Court shall proceed with his trial.
- (4) Where the Court finds that the Defendant is of unsound mind, the provisions of this Law in relation to persons of unsound mind shall apply.

288. Pleas: autrefois acquit or convict, pardon

- (1) A Defendant against whom a charge or information is filed may plead that:
 - (a) by virtue of Section 249 of this Law he is not liable to be tried for the offence with which he is charged; or
 - (b) he has obtained a pardon for his offence.
- (2) Where either of the pleas under subsection (1) of this Section is raised in any case and denied to be true in fact, the Court shall determine whether such plea is true in fact or not.
- (3) Where the Court holds that the facts alleged by the Defendant do not prove the plea, or if it finds that It is false in fact, the Defendant shall be required to plead to the charge.
- (4) Nothing in this Section shall prevent a Defendant from pleading that, by virtue of some other provision of Law, he is not liable to be prosecuted or tried for an offence with which he is charged.

PART XXXI

PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND

289. Procedure when defendant is suspected to be of unsound mind

- (1) Where in the course of a criminal trial, the Court has reason to suspect the mental capacity or soundness of mind of the Defendant, by virtue of which he is unable to stand trial or defend himself, the Court shall order the medical examination of the Defendant's mental state or soundness of mind.
- (2) An investigation under subsection (1) of this Section may be held in the absence of the Defendant where the Court is satisfied that owing to the state of the Defendant's mind it would be in the interests of the Defendant or of other persons or in the interests of public decency that he should be absent.
- (3) Where the Court is not satisfied that the Defendant is capable of making his defence, the Court shall adjourn the trial or proceedings and shall remand the person for a period not exceeding 1 month to be detained for observation in some suitable place.
- (4) A Defendant detained in accordance with subsection (3) of this Section shall be kept under observation by a Medical Officer during the period of his remand and before the expiration of that period, the Medical Officer shall:
 - (a) give to the Court his opinion in writing as to the state of mind of that person; and
 - (b) where he is unable within the period to form any definite opinion, he shall so certify to the Court and ask for a further remand and such further remand may extend to a period of 3 months.
- (5) Where further period of remand is granted under subsection (4) of this Section, the case shall be fixed returnable by the Court at the expiration of the period granted under subsection 4 (b) of this Section.

- (6) A Court, before which a Defendant suspected to be of unsound mind is accused of any offence may, on the application of the Attorney-General or a Law Officer made at any stage of the proceeding prior to the trial order that the person be sent to an asylum or such other suitable place for observation.
- (7) The Medical Officer in charge of the asylum or such other suitable place shall, within a period not exceeding 1 month in the First instance or on application to the Court for further period of 3 months, submit to the Court a report in writing containing his opinion on the soundness of mind of the Defendant.

290. Report from medical officer

Where the Medical Officer or such Officer in charge of the asylum or other suitable place to which the Defendant is referred for observation under the provisions of this Section fails to submit a report as provided in Section 289(4) and (7) of this Law within the period stipulated in those sub Sections, the Court may discharge the person, or shall release him on bail in accordance with the provisions of this Law relating to bail.

291. Certificate of medical officer

- (1) Where the Medical Officer certifies that the Defendant is of:
 - (a) sound mind and capable of making his defence, the Court shall, unless it is satisfied by the defence that the Defendant is of unsound mind, proceed with the trial; or
 - (b) unsound mind and incapable of making his defence, the Court shall, where it is satisfied of the fact, postpone the proceeding.
- (2) The trial of the issue as to whether or not the Defendant is of unsound mind and incapable of making his defence shall, where the finding is that he is of sound mind and capable of making his defence, be deemed to be part of his trial before the Court.
- (3) The certificate of the Medical Officer who issued the certificate shall be admissible under this Section even in the absence from Court of the Medical Officer provided there is sufficient explanation for his absence.
- (4) Where the Defendant is certified to be of unsound mind and incapable of making his defence, it shall not be compulsory for him to be present in Court during proceedings under this Section.

292. Release of defendant of unsound mind pending investigation or trial

- (1) Where a Defendant is found to be of unsound mind and incapable of making his defence, if the offence charged is bailable by the Court, it may in its discretion, release him on sufficient security being given:
 - (a) that he shall be properly taken care of and he and be prevented from doing injury to himself or to any other person; and
 - (b) for his appearance when required before the Court or such Officer as the Court appoints in that behalf.
- (2) Where a Defendant is before a Magistrate charged with an offence which is bailable by a Judge but not by a Magistrate or where the offence is bailable by a Magistrate but the Magistrate refused to grant bail, the Magistrate shall inform the Defendant of his right to apply to a Judge for bail.
- (3) Where the offence charged is not bailable by the High Court or where a Judge has refused bail under subsection (1) of this Section or after an application made under subsection (2) of this Section or where sufficient security is not given or where no application is made for bail, the Judge shall report the case to the Attorney-General, who, after consideration of the report may, in his discretion, order the Defendant to be confined in a lunatic asylum or other suitable place of safe custody and the Judge shall give effect to the order.
- (4) Where the order is not given within 2 months, the Court may discharge the Defendant or release him on bail on satisfaction that doing so will not endanger the life of the Defendant or the life of anyone else.
- (5) Pending the order of the Attorney-General, the Defendant may be committed to an asylum or other suitable place of custody for safe custody.

293. Resumption of proceedings or trial

Where a proceeding or trial is postponed under Section 289 or 290 of this Law, the Court may at any time re-open the proceeding or recommence the trial and require the Defendant to appear or be brought before the Court.

294. Resumption of proceedings after release under Section 292

Where the Defendant has been released under Section 292 of this Law, the Court may at any time require the Defendant to appear or be brought before it and may again proceed with the proceeding or trial.

295. Where defendant appears to have been of unsound mind

Where the Defendant appears to be of unsound mind at the time of any remand or similar pre-trial proceedings before a Court, and the issue of the state of soundness of mind of the Defendant is in issue, being a defence to the main offence for which he is arrested relating to insanity or intoxication, the Court shall proceed to deal with the Defendant in accordance with Sections 289 to 303 of this Law and shall not make any finding of fact in relation to such defence that the Defendant is open to plead at his trial for the offence.

296. Safe custody of defendant discharged

Where the finding states that the Defendant committed the act alleged, the Court before which the trial has been held shall, where the act would have but for the finding of incapacity constituted an offence, order the person to be kept in safe custody in such place and manner as the Court thinks fit and shall, within 31 days of the order, report the case for an order of the Attorney General.

297. Order of the Attorney-General in pursuance to Section 296

(1) The Attorney General may at his discretion order the Defendant to be confined pursuant to Section 296 in a mental health asylum, Custodial Centre or other suitable place of safe custody.

(2) In exercising this discretion, the Attorney-General shall ensure that the Defendant is placed in such facility as to afford him adequate care at the expense of the State.

298. Observation of convict of unsound mind

- (2) Notice of an action to be taken under subsection (1) (a) of this Section shall have been given to the person who appears to be the owner of a currency, matter or thing, where the person is known and can easily be found, that the coin or thing will be destroyed at the end of a specified number of days unless the owner shows that the currency is not counterfeit or that the thing is not intended to be used for the purpose of making counterfeit currency.
- (3) A reasonable time shall be allowed for the person to provide proof that the currency is not counterfeit or that the thing is not intended to be used for the purpose of making counterfeit currency and the person who alleges that he is the owner of or otherwise entitled to the currency or thing shall have no claim against the Officer of the Central Bank of Nigeria, Police Officer or the Federal Government in respect of the coin or thing so destroyed.

355. Detention and destruction of counterfeit currency, etc.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Section, Sections 353 and 354 of this Law shall apply in relation to notes purporting to be legal tender in Nigeria as those Sections apply in relation to currency.
- (2) Any currency, matter or thing shall not be destroyed by virtue of the provisions of this Part except:
 - (a) a Court orders its destruction, in connection with a conviction for an offence;
 - (b) it appears to a Magistrate Court having jurisdiction in the place where the currency, matter or thing is for the time being situated, on an application made in accordance with rules of Court, that the existence of the currency, matter or thing involves a breach of the Law and the Court makes an order for its forfeiture and destruction accordingly; or

- (3) in the absence of a conviction for an offence in respect of the currency, matter or thing and any pending prosecution for the offence, and of an order or pending application for an order for its forfeiture, the currency, matter or thing:
- (i) has been voluntarily surrendered by the person having possession of it, to the proper official of the Central Bank of Nigeria or a superior Police Officer, or
 - (ii) is discovered in a lodgement made with the Central Bank by a commercial bank.

356. Mode of dealing with forfeiture not pecuniary

Subject to the express provisions of any Law, an article, not pecuniary, forfeited in respect of a summary conviction for an offence, the seizure, forfeiture or disposition of which may be enforced by the Court may be sold or disposed of in such manner as the Court may direct, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied in the like manner as if the proceeds were a penalty imposed under the Law on which the proceedings for the forfeiture is founded.

PART XXXVII

SUMMARY PROCEDURE IN PERJURY

357. Summary procedure in perjury

- (1) Where it appears to a Court that a person has committed perjury in any proceeding before it, the Court, subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this Section and in addition, in the case of a Magistrate, to subsection (3) of this Section, may:
 - (a) commit him for trial on a charge of perjury and bind any person by Recognizance to give evidence at his trial; or
 - (b) try him summarily for contempt of Court and where he is found guilty, commit him to Custodial Centre for a period not exceeding 6 months or fine him in such sum in accordance with the scale of fine in the Appendix E to this Law.
- (2) Where a Court decides to try a person summarily, under subsection (1) of this Section, for contempt of Court, the Court shall:
 - (a) specify the perjury alleged and shall direct the attention of the person to be charged to the inconsistencies on which the charge is based; and
 - (b) require him to give his explanation to the inconsistencies and record the explanation.
- (3) Where a Court orders a person to be imprisoned or to pay a fine under subsection (1) of this Section, It shall:
 - (a) not issue a warrant of commitment or make an order for imprisonment for non-payment of the fine but shall either remand the person or release him on a Recognizance with or without sureties, to come up before the Court when called upon; and
 - (b) immediately forward to the Chief Judge or such Judge as the Chief Judge may direct, a certified copy of the proceedings.

- (4) The Chief Judge or Judge to whom a certified copy of the proceedings is forwarded pursuant to subsection (3) of this Section:
- (a) may, without hearing argument and in the absence of the person concerned, set aside or confirm the order or reduce the sentence of imprisonment or the amount of the fine; and
 - (b) shall inform the Court immediately of his decision.
- (5) Where the Chief Judge or Judge does not wholly set aside the Court's order, the Court shall immediately issue its warrant of commitment or make the necessary order for payment of the fine in accordance with the terms of the Chief Judge or Judge's order.
- (6) An imprisonment or a fine ordered or imposed under this Section is a bar to any other proceeding for the same offence except where the order of the Court has been wholly set aside.

PART XXXVIII

TRIALS AND SUMMARY TRIALS GENERALLY

358. Trials

- (1) Trials shall be held in the High Court on a charge filed:
 - (a) by the Attorney General or a Law Officer in his office;
 - (b) by a Legal Officer of any prosecuting agency;
 - (c) by a private Prosecutor duly authorized by the Attorney-General;
or
 - (d) summarily, in accordance with the provisions of this Law.
- (2) Trials shall be held In the Magistrate Court or any other Court exercising criminal jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of this Law relating to summary trials.

359. Non-appearance and non-representation of legal practitioner.

- (1) Where a Defendant charged before the Court is not represented by a legal practitioner, the Court shall:
 - (a) inform him of his rights to a legal practitioner of his choice; and
 - (b) enquire from him, whether he wishes to engage his own legal practitioner, or a legal practitioner engaged for him by way of Legal Aid.
- (2) Where the legal practitioner who had appeared on behalf of the Defendant ceases to appear in Court on two consecutive sessions of the Court, the Court shall enquire from the Defendant if he wishes to engage another legal practitioner or a legal practitioner engaged for him by way of Legal Aid.
- (3) Where the Defendant wishes to engage another legal practitioner of his choice, the Court shall allow him reasonable time but not exceeding 30 days to do so.
- (4) Where the Defendant fails or is unable to engage a legal practitioner for himself within a reasonable time, the Court may direct that the Defendant be represented by a legal practitioner engaged by way of Legal Aid.

- (5) The Court may assign to any legal practitioner whose place of practice is within the jurisdiction of the Court, any case of a Defendant who has no legal representation, and the legal practitioner shall undertake the defence of the Defendant with all due diligence, in which case, the legal practitioner shall not pay any filing fee or service fee in respect of the case so assigned.
- (6) A legal practitioner so engaged shall be paid such reasonable Sum as may be determined by the Attorney-General.
- (7) Where the Defendant chooses to represent himself, the Court shall:
 - (a) inform him of his rights under the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999 and under this Law; and
 - (b) indicate the fact of having so informed the Defendant on the record;
 - (c) a Defendant charged with a capital offence or in offence punishable with life imprisonment shall not be allowed to represent and defend himself in person.
- (8) A legal practitioner, other than a Law Officer, engaged in any matter shall be bound to conduct the case on behalf of the prosecution or Defendant until final judgment, unless allowed for any special reason to cease from acting by the Court of its own motion or upon application by the legal practitioner.
- (9) Where a legal practitioner intends to disengage from a matter, he shall notify the Court, not less than seven (7) days before the date fixed for hearing and such notice shall be served on the Court and all parties.

360. When summary trials shall be held

- (1) Trial shall be held summarily in:
 - (a) the High Court in respect of perjury;

- (b) respect of an offence which by a Law made by the House of Assembly is triable summarily; and
 - (c) respect of a trial for an offence punishable with less than 3 years imprisonment in the Magistrate Court.
- (2) In a trial in any Court, the prosecution shall, provide the Defendant all materials that the prosecution intends to rely on at the trial, before or at the commencement of the trial.

361. Non-appearance of complainant

- (1) When the case is called, the Defendant appears voluntarily in obedience to the summons or is brought before the Court under a warrant, and the complainant having, to the satisfaction of the Court, had due notice of the time and place of hearing, does not appear in person or in the manner authorized by a written Law, the Court may dismiss the complaint.
- (2) Where the Court receives a reasonable excuse for the nonappearance of the complainant or his representative or for other sufficient reason, it shall adjourn the hearing of the complaint to some future day on such terms as the Court may deem just.

362. Non-appearance of defendant

- (1) Where a case is called in which summons has been issued and the Defendant does not appear and no sufficient excuse is offered for his absence, then the Court where it is:
- (a) satisfied that the summons, if any, has been duly served, may issue a bench warrant for his arrest; or
 - (b) not satisfied that the summon has been duly served or where a warrant had been issued, in the first instance, for the arrest of the Defendant, shall adjourn the hearing of the case to some future days, in order that proper service may be effected or, until the Defendant is arrested, as the case may be.
- (2) Where the Defendant is afterward arrested on a bench Warrant, he shall be brought before the Court immediately which may then commit him by warrant to Custodial Centre or to such other place of safe custody as it deems fit, and order him to be brought before the Court at a certain time and place.

- (3) The complainant shall, by direction of the Court, be served due notice of the time and place ordered under subsection (2) of this Section.
- (4) Where the Court, in exercise of its discretion, has granted bail to the Defendant and the Defendant fails to attend Court without reasonable explanation, the Court shall continue with the trial in his absence and convict him unless the Court sees reasons otherwise, provided that proceedings in the absence of the Defendant shall take place after two adjournments or as the Court may deem fit.
- (5) The Court shall impose a sentence only when the Defendant is arrested or surrenders to the custody of the Court.

363. Non-appearance of both parties

- (1) Where the case is called and neither the Prosecutor nor the Defendant appears, or the Defendant appears and the Prosecutor does not appear, the Court shall make such order as the justice of the case requires.
- (2) The Court may, in the order, include such direction as to the payment of costs as the Court considers fit.

364. Appearance of both parties.

When the case is called and both the complainant and the Defendant appear, the Court shall proceed to hear and determine the case.

365. Withdrawal of complaint

Where a complainant, at any time before judgment is delivered in a case, satisfies the Court that there are sufficient grounds for permitting him to withdraw his complaint, the Court may permit him to withdraw the complaint and shall thereupon acquit the Defendant.

366. Manner of hearing

- (1) At the commencement of the hearing, the Court shall state, or cause to be stated to the Defendant, the substance of the complaint, and shall ask him whether he is guilty or not guilty.

- (2) Where the Defendant pleads guilty and the Court is satisfied that he has admitted the offence and shown no cause or no sufficient cause why sentence should not be passed, the Court shall proceed to sentence him.
- (3) Where the Defendant pleads not guilty, the Court shall direct all witnesses to leave the Court and upon the direction, the provisions of Section 212 of the Evidence Act, shall apply, but failure to comply with the provisions of this subsection shall not invalidate the proceedings but would affect the weight of evidence given by that witness who fails to leave the Court on the direction being given.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provision of subsections (1), (2) and (3), in capital offences the Court shall proceed with the trial irrespective of the plea by the Defendant.
- (5) The Court shall then proceed:
 - (a) to hear the Prosecutor and such witnesses as he may call and such other evidence as he may adduce in support of the charge;
 - (b) also, to hear the Defendant and such witnesses as he may call and such other evidence as he may adduce in his defence; and
- (6) The Prosecutor may put questions to each witness called by the Defendant and where the Defendant gives evidence, he may be cross-examined.
- (7) Where the Defendant is not represented by a legal practitioner, the Court shall, at the close of the examination of each witness for the prosecution, ask the Defendant whether he wishes to put any question to that witness, and shall record the Defendant's answer.
- (8) The Defendant shall take his plea in the dock, except the Judge directs otherwise.

367. Discharge of defendant when no case to answer

Where at the close of the evidence in support of the charge, it appears to the Court that a case is not made out against the Defendant sufficiently to require him to make a defence, the Court shall, as to that particular charge, discharge him being guided by the provisions of Section 313 of this Law.

368. Defence

(1) At the close of the evidence in support of the charge, where it appears to the Court that a prima facie case is made out against the Defendant sufficiently to require him to make a defence, the Court shall call on him for his defence and where the Defendant is not represented by a legal practitioner, the Court shall inform him of the alternatives open to him that he may:

- (a) make a statement, without being sworn, from the place when: he then is, in which case he will not be liable to cross-examination; or
- (b) give evidence in the witness box, after being sworn as a witness; in which case he will be liable to cross-examination; or
- (c) call any witness or adduce any other evidence in his defence.

(2) Where the Defendant is represented by a legal practitioner, the Court shall call on the legal practitioner to proceed with the defence.

369. Process for compelling production of evidence at instance of defendant

(1) The Defendant may apply to the Court to issue a process for compelling the attendance of a witness for the purpose of examination or the production of a document or any other thing.

(2) On an application by the Defendant under subsection (1) of this Section, the Court shall issue the process unless for reasons to be recorded by it in writing it considers that the application is made for the purpose of vexation or delay or of defeating the aims of justice.

370. Saving as to section 369

Failure to comply with the requirements of Section 369 (1) of this Law shall not of itself vitiate the trial where the Court:

- (a) called on the Defendant for his defence;
- (b) asked the Defendant if he had any witness; and
- (c) heard the Defendant and his witnesses and other evidence, if any.

371. Evidence in reply

Where the Defendant adduces in his defence a new matter, which the prosecution could not foresee, the prosecution may, with the leave of the Court, adduce evidence to rebut the new matter or evidence.

372. Power to take deposition in certain case

- (1) In certain exceptional circumstances, where the evidence of a technical, professional or expert witness would not ordinarily be contentious as to require cross-examination, the Court may grant leave for the evidence to be taken in writing or by electronic recording device, on oath or affirmation of the witness, and the deposition shall form part of the record of the Court.
- (2) Where it appears to the Court that a person who is seriously ill or hurt may not recover, but is able and willing to give material evidence relating to an offence and it is not practicable to take the evidence in accordance with the provisions of this Law, the Judge or Magistrate shall:
 - (a) take in writing the statement on oath or affirmation of the person and subscribe the statement and certify that It contains accurately the whole of the statement made by the person; and
 - (b) add a statement of his reason for taking the statement, the date and place when and where the Statement was taken, and shall preserve the statement and file it for record.
- (3) The Court shall cause reasonable notice of the application to take the deposition in accordance with subsections (1) and (2) of this Section and of the time and place where it is to be taken to be served on the Prosecutor and Defendant and if the Defendant, is in custody and his presence is required for the deposition, he shall be brought by the person in whose custody he is, to the place where the statement is to be taken, under an order in writing of the Court.

373. When statement may be used in evidence

- (1) A statement taken under Section 372 of this Law may afterwards be used in evidence on the trial of a Defendant accused of an offence to which the statement relates in accordance with the provisions of Section 46 of the Evidence Act.
- (2) The signature and attestation of the Judge or Magistrate shall be sufficient prima facie proof of the content of the statement, and that the statement was taken in all respects according to Law and the attestation and signature shall be admitted without further proof unless the Court sees reason to doubt its genuineness.

374. Notes on evidence to be recorded in writing

- (1) Without prejudice to Section 359 (2) of this Law, Court proceedings may be recorded electronically and verbatim such that at the end of each day's proceeding a transcript of such recording shall be printed to enable certification or authentication by the Judge or Magistrate who conducted the proceedings.
- (2) Where Court proceedings are not recorded as stated in subsection (1), the Court shall in every case take notes in writing of the oral evidence it considers material, in a book or file to be kept for that purpose and the book or files shall be signed by the Court at the conclusion of each day's proceedings.
- (3) The transcript of the recordings of the Court shall be signed or otherwise authenticated by the presiding judge at an adjournment of the case or at the conclusion in a manner authorized from time to time by the Chief Judge in accordance with such condition as may be imposed by rules of Court, and the signed transcript shall be taken as part of the record of the proceedings.

- (4) A person is not entitled, as of right, to inspection of or to a copy of the record so kept except as may be expressly provided for by the rules of the Court or by any other Law.
- (5) The record so kept or a copy of it purporting to be signed and certified as a true copy by the Court shall, at all times, without further proof, be admitted as evidence of the proceedings as statement made by the witnesses.

375. Local inspection.

A Court trying a case summarily shall make or cause to be made such local inspection as the circumstances of the case may require.

376. Cross complaints

Where a complaint is made by one or more parties against another party or parties and there is a cross-complaint by the Defendant or Defendants in the first named case, the Court may, where it deems fit, hear and determine the complaints in the same proceeding.

377. Joinder of complaints

Where two or more complaints are made by one or more parties against another party or parties and the complaints refer to the same matter, the Court may, where it deems fit, hear and determine the complaints in the same proceedings.

378. Giving of decision upon conclusion of hearing

On the conclusion of the hearing, the Court shall either at the same or at an adjourned sitting give its decision on the case either by dismissing or convicting the Defendant and may make such other orders as may seem just.

379. Power to bind parties to be of good behaviour

- (1) In a summary trial, the Court may, whether the complaint is dismissed or not, by order bind over either the complainant or Defendant, or both, with or without a surety or sureties, to be of good behaviour.
- (2) A person who breaches an order made, pursuant to subsection (1) of this Section, may be imprisoned for a term not exceeding three months in addition to any other punishment to which the person is liable.

- (3) Before a binding order pursuant to subsection (1) of this Section or an order for imprisonment or any other punishment under subsection (2) of this Section is made, the person to be affected by the order shall be given an opportunity to be heard.

380. Effect of judgement of dismissal on merits, not on merits and without prejudice

- (1) Where a charge is dismissed on merits, the dismissal has the same effect as an acquittal.
- (2) When charge dismissed but not on merits, or stated to be dismissal without prejudice, the dismissal does not have the same effect as an acquittal.

381. Summary trial of child by Magistrate

Where a Child is proceeded against before a Court for an offence, the Court shall have regard to the provisions of the Children and Young Persons Law or any other Law in force.

382. Power to remand

Without prejudice to any other power which a Magistrate may possess, he may, for the purposes of ascertaining whether it is expedient to deal with a case summarily, either before or during the hearing of the case, adjourn the case and remand the person charged for a period not exceeding 48 hours or release him on ball.

383. Law officer may require case to be adjourned or dealt with specially

- (1) A Law Officer, in a case where a charge of an indictable offence is being proceeded with summarily by a Magistrate, may, at any time before judgment, request the Magistrate to deal with the case as one for trial on charge.
- (2) On receipt of the request, the Magistrate shall adjourn the proceeding until such a time as information or charge is filed in the High Court, provided that the Information shall be filed within a period of 30 days of the date the order granting the request.
- (3) The Magistrate shall make the case returnable for a period not exceeding 32 days from the date of the grant of the request.

- (4) Where at the end of the period of 30 days provided in subsection (2) of this Section, the information or charge against the Defendant has not been filed at the High Court, the Magistrate shall proceed on the return date to try the charge summarily where he has jurisdiction, or may make an order releasing the Defendant on bail pending his arraignment on the information or charge as requested by the Law Officer.

384. Adjournment for law officer's decision

- (1) Where a charge for an offence is being tried summarily by a Magistrate, he shall, at the request of a person in charge of the prosecution made at any time before judgment, adjourn the hearing of the charge for consultation with a Law Officer with a view to obtaining a request to proceed in accordance with Section 383 of this Law.
- (2) The request of the Law Officer so consulted shall be filed within 14 days of the date the Magistrate grants the request of the person prosecuting, failing which the Magistrate shall proceed to try and conclude the case summarily.
- (3) Where the Magistrate grants an adjournment at a request under subsection (1) of this Section, the adjournment shall not be for a period exceeding 15 days, and the Magistrate may grant the Defendant bail.

385. Security for peace in cases tried summarily

- (1) A Defendant convicted of an offence tried summarily may, instead of, or in addition to any prescribed punishment, be ordered to enter into his own recognizance, with or without sureties, in such amount as the Court thinks fit that he shall keep the peace and be of good behaviour for a reasonable period fixed by the Court.
- (2) The convict may be ordered to be imprisoned until the recognizance is entered into, but the imprisonment shall not:
- (a) extend for a term longer than 1 year; and
- (b) together with the fixed term of imprisonment, if any, extend for a term longer than the longest term for which he might be sentenced to be imprisoned without fine for the offence which he was convicted.

386. Case file, legal advice, and related proceedings

- (1) Where an offence for which the Magistrate Court has no jurisdiction to try is preferred against a Defendant, the police shall at the end of investigation submit the original case file to the office of the Attorney-General.
- (2) The Attorney-General shall, within 21 days of receipt of the police case, file, issue and serve his legal advice indicating whether or not there is a prima facie case against the Defendant for which he can be prosecuted.
- (3) Where the Attorney-General is of the opinion, as contained in the legal advice, that the Suspect has no prima facie case to answer, he shall serve a copy of the legal advice on the:
 - (a) police or the head of the police legal unit through whom the police case file was sent to the Attorney-General;
 - (b) Court before whom the Suspect was remanded in Custodial Centre, where he is in remand custody, or before whom the Suspect was granted bail, where he is on bail; and
 - (c) Suspect in respect of whom legal advice is preferred through the Custodial Centre authority, where the Suspect is remanded in custody, or through his legal representative, if any.
- (4) Where the offence is one for which a Magistrate Court has jurisdiction to try, the Prosecutor shall file the charge at the Magistrate Court, accompanied with:
 - (a) the list of witnesses;
 - (b) the list of exhibits;
 - (c) statements of the witnesses and of the Defendant; and
 - (d) any report, document or material that the prosecution intends to rely on at the trial of the offence, but the prosecution may, with leave of the Court, file and serve any additional document.
- (5) The police or the Officer in charge of the Custodial Centre in which the Suspect is remanded in custody shall on receipt of the legal advice, release the Suspect immediately from detention where there is no case to answer.

- (6) The Court referred to in subsection (4) (b) of this Section, shall, on receipt of the legal advice, dismiss the charge against the Suspect and accordingly discharge the Suspect.
- (7) The Attorney-General shall send a Law Officer in his office to the Court where the order of remand was made and ensure the discharge of the remand order and of the Suspect.
- (8) Where the Attorney-General is of the opinion, as contained in the legal advice, that the Suspect has a prima facie case to answer, he shall file and serve the charge or information in accordance with the provisions of this Law.
- (9) A form as prescribed in Appendix F to this Law, indicating a desire to be represented by legal practitioner of his choice or by a legal practitioner from the Legal Aid Council or any other organization providing free legal representation to Defendants shall be attached to each legal advice for the purpose of endorsement by the person in respect of whom legal advice is preferred and against whom the information is filed.
- (10) Where the Defendant indicates in the form referred to in subsection (8) of this Section that, he wishes to be represented by a legal practitioner of the Legal Aid Council or any other organization providing free legal representation, he shall forward the form to the Chief Registrar of the Court before whom the charge or information for his trial has been filed and the Chief Registrar shall, within 14 days of receipt of the form, ensure that a legal practitioner of the Legal Aid Council as stipulated under this subsection or any other organization providing free legal representation for the Defendant, and by notice in writing inform the Defendant of the particulars of the legal representation arranged for him.
- (11) The Chief Registrar shall, upon receipt of the form, forward same to the State Director of the Legal Aid Council or to the nearest Legal Aid Council office where the Court is located.

387. Filing of charge

A charge may be filed by:

- (a) the Attorney-General or Officers in his office,

- (b) a public Officer acting in his official capacity;
- (c) a private legal practitioner authorized by the Attorney-General;
or
- (d) a private person, provided the charge is endorsed by a Law Officer that he has seen such charge and declined to prosecute at the public instance and the private person enters into a bond to prosecute diligently and to a logical conclusion.

388. Assignment of charge and issuance of notice of trial

- (1) Where a charge has been filed In the Court, the Chief Judge shall take appropriate steps to ensure that the charge filed is assigned to a Court for trial Within 15 working days of its filing.
- (2) on assigning the charge, the Court to which the charge is assigned shall within 10 working days of the assignment issue notice of trial to the witnesses and Defendants and a production warrant properly endorsed by the Judge in respect of the Defendant charged, where he is in custody, for the purpose of ensuring his appearance on the date of arraignment, and the Chief Registrar shall ensure the prompt service of the notice and charge not more than 3 days from the date they are issued.
- (3) Where the Defendant named in the charge is in custody the notice of trial and the charge shall be delivered to him through the Officer in charge of the Correctional Custodial Centre in which he is detained, and the warrant for his production shall be served on the Officer of the Correctional Custodial Centre.
- (4) Where the Defendant is not in custody, the notice of trial and the charge shall be sewed on him personally.
- (5) Where it is impossible or impracticable to effect personal service of the notice of trial and charge on the Defendant, they may be served on him, with leave of Court, through his legal practitioner, if any, or on his surety or sureties, or on an adult in his household or in such other manner as the Court shall deem fit and the service shall be deemed to be duly served on the Defendant.
- (6) Nothing in this Section shall prevent the Defendant from being tried by reason only that the notice of trial and the charge were served on him less than 3 days before the date of trial, where he consents to being so tried.

389. Charge by private prosecutor

- (1) The registrar shall receive a charge from a Private legal practitioner where:
 - (a) the charge is endorsed by the Attorney-General or a Law Officer acting on his behalf stating that he has seen the charge and has declined to prosecute the offence set out in the charge; and
 - (b) the private legal practitioner shall enter into a recognizance in:
 - (i) such sum as may be fixed by the Court, with a surety, to prosecute the charge to conclusion from the time the Defendant shall be required to appear,
 - (ii) pay such costs as may be ordered by the Court, or
 - (iii) deposit in the registry of the Court, such sum of money as the Court may Fix.
- (2) Where an application for consent to prosecute is made to the Attorney-General by a private legal practitioner and the Attorney-General declines to grant such consent, he shall give his reasons for doing so in writing within 15 working days from the date of the receipt of the application.

390. Condition for Private prosecutors

Where a private legal practitioner has complied with the provisions of Section 389 of this Law, the charge shall be signed by such private legal practitioner who shall be entitled to prosecute the charge.

391. Venue

The place of trial shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Law.

392. Change of venue

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 391 of this Law:

- (a) where a cause is commenced in any other division than that in which it ought to have been commenced, it may, notwithstanding, be tried in that division in which it was commenced, but where the Defendant objects, the Court may, where it considers the objection reasonable, transfer the case to the proper division in which it ought to have been commenced; and

- (b) the Prosecutor or the Defendant may, whenever he considers that the ends of justice so require in any case, apply to the Court either to transfer the hearing from one division to another or from one part of the division to another part of the same division.
- (c) no appeal shall lie from any order of transfer made under this Section.

393. Effect of change of venue

Where a case is transferred from one place in a division to another place in the same division or to another division, the case shall be tried and determined at the place or in the division to which it has been transferred; and all recognizance, subpoenas, and proceedings in or relating to the case are deemed to be returnable at the latter place or division and all witnesses who are or summoned to attend the trial shall be informed accordingly and shall attend at such latter place or division.

394. Form of notice of trial

The registrar or any other person directed by the Court, shall endorse on, or annex to, every charge delivered to the sheriff or proper Officer, for service, a notice of trial and such notice shall specify the particular sessions at which the party is to be tried on the charge and shall be in the following form or as near to it as may be.

395. Copy of charge and notice of trial to be delivered to Sheriff

The registrar or other proper Officer shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Sheriff or proper Officer serving the charge, a copy, with the notice of trial endorsed on or annexed to it, and where there are more parties charged than one, then as many copies as there are parties, together with a similar notice for service on each Witness bound to attend the trial.

396. Time and mode of summoning parties on charge

The Sheriff or other proper officer shall, on receipt of the charge and notice of trial, serve the person named in the notice at least 7 working days before the date specified on the notice.

397. Service of notice of trial on witness

399. Return of service

The officer of such courier company serving the copy of the charge and notices shall immediately make to the registrar or other proper officer a return of the mode of service with the necessary endorsement of service on the person named for service on the notice or charge.

400. Warrant where defendant does not appear

Where a Defendant against whom a charge has been duly preferred, and on whom the charge and notice of trial have been duly served, does not appear to plead to the charge, whether he is under recognizance to appear or not, the Court may issue a warrant for his arrest.

401. Law officer or legal practitioner for State and defence in capital cases

Where a Defendant is accused of a capital offence or offence punishable by life imprisonment, the State shall be represented by a Law officer, or a legal practitioner, and where the Defendant is not defended by a legal practitioner, the Court shall assign a legal practitioner for his defence.

402. Time for raising certain objections, day-to-day trial and adjournments

(1) The Defendant to be tried on a charge shall be arraigned in accordance with the provisions of this Law relating to the taking of pleas and the procedure on it.

(2) After the plea has been taken, the Defendant may raise any objection to the validity of the charge at any time before judgment provided that such objection shall only be considered along with the substantive issues and a ruling thereon made at the time of delivery of judgment.

- (3) Upon arraignment, the trial of the Defendant shall proceed from day-to-day until the conclusion of the trial.
- (4) Where day-to-day trial is impracticable after arraignment, no party shall be entitled to more than five adjournments from arraignment to final judgment provided that the interval between each adjournment shall not exceed 14 working days.
- (5) Where it is impracticable to conclude a criminal proceeding after the parties have exhausted their five adjournments each, the interval between one adjournment to another shall not exceed seven days inclusive of weekends
- (6) In all circumstances, the Court may award reasonable costs in order to discourage frivolous adjournments.
- (7) Where a Judge or Magistrate conducting a trial is transferred to another jurisdiction he shall be given a dispensation by the Chief Judge to conclude any part that matters in his last jurisdiction within a reasonable time after assuming office in the new jurisdiction.

PROVIDED that, this subsection shall not prevent him from assuming duty as a Judge of the High Court or Justice of the Court of Appeal.

403. Attendance of witness bound by recognizance to attend

A person who is summoned as a witness, whether for the prosecution or for the defence, shall be bound to attend the Court on the day fixed for the trial of the case and on subsequent dates until the conclusion of the case or until he has been discharged by the Court from further attendance.

404. Warrant for arrest of witness not attending on recognizance

Where a person who has been summoned to attend as a witness, whether for the prosecution or for the defence, does not attend the Court on the day fixed for the trial of the case or on any further adjourned date, and he offers no reasonable excuse for his absence, despite the fact that he was duly served with the notice of the trial, the Court may issue a bench warrant that the person be arrested and be brought before the Court, at a time to be mentioned in the Warrant, in order to give evidence on behalf of the prosecution or of the defence, as the case may be.

405. Warrant for arrest of witness disobeying summons

Where a person named on a summons or writ of subpoena willfully refused to accept service of the summons or writ of subpoena, the Court shall issue a warrant for the person to be arrested and be brought before the Court at a time to be mentioned in the warrant in accordance with the summons or writ of subpoena.

406. Fine for non-attendance of witness

A person who fails to attend as witness in either of the cases mentioned in Sections 404 and 405 of this Law is liable, on the summary order of the Court, to a fine in a reasonable sum to be fixed by the Court, but not less than N5, 000.00 and, in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term corresponding to the fixed sum, but the period of imprisonment shall not exceed a period of one month.

423. Power to order detention for one day in precincts of the court

- (1) Where the Court has power to pass a sentence of Imprisonment, it may, in lieu of such sentence, order the convict to be detained within the precincts of the Court or at a police station till such hour not later than eight in the evening on the day on which he is convicted, as the Court may direct.
- (2) The Court shall, before making an order of detention under this Section, take into consideration the distance between the place of detention and the convict's abode, where his abode is known to or ascertained by the Court, the Court shall not make an order of detention under this Section as will deprive the convict of a reasonable opportunity of returning to his abode on the day on which the order of detention is made.
- (3) Where a sentence of imprisonment is passed on a convict by a Court, it may order that the sentence shall commence at the expiration of any term of imprisonment to which that convict has been previously sentenced by a competent Court in Nigeria.
- (4) Where two or more sentences passed by a Magistrate Court are ordered to run consecutively, the aggregate term of imprisonment shall not exceed 4 years of the limit of jurisdiction of the adjudicating Magistrate.

424. Date from which sentence commences

A sentence of imprisonment takes effect from and includes the whole of the day of the date on which it was pronounced.

425. Default in payment of fine

- (1) In the case of a conviction in the High Court, where no amount of fine is stipulated, the amount of the fine shall be at the discretion of the Court, and any term of imprisonment imposed in default of payment of the fine shall not exceed 2 years.
- (2) In the case of a conviction in a Magistrate and Shari'ah Court:
 - (a) the amount of the fine shall be at the discretion of the Court but shall not exceed the maximum fine authorized by this Law to be imposed by the Magistrate or under the Law by virtue of which he was appointed a Magistrate; and
 - (b) a term of imprisonment imposed in default of payment of the fine shall not exceed the maximum fixed in relation to the amount of the fine by the scale specified in the Appendix F of this Law.
- (3) In no case shall any term of imprisonment imposed in default of payment of a fine which has been imposed by virtue of the power in that behalf contained in subsection (1) of this Section, exceed the maximum term authorized as a punishment for the offence by the Law.
- (4) The provisions of this Section do not apply in a case where a Law provides a minimum period of imprisonment to be imposed for the commission of an offence.

426. Execution of sentence on escaped convict

Where sentence of imprisonment is passed on an escaped convict, the sentence shall take effect after he has served imprisonment for a further period equal to that which at the time of his escape remained unexpired of his former sentence.

427. Fine in default of imprisonment

A Defendant convicted of an offence punishable by:

- (a) imprisonment as well as fine, and sentenced to pay a fine, whether with or without imprisonment, or
- (b) imprisonment or fine, and sentenced to pay a fine, may be ordered to serve imprisonment, in default of payment of the fine, for a certain term, which imprisonment shall be in addition to any other imprisonment to which he may have been sentenced.

428. General power of awarding imprisonment in default of payment of penalty

- (1) The Chief Judge may, from time to time, subject to a resolution of the State House of Assembly, review the provisions for the amount of fines, compensation or other sums of money prescribed under this Law.
- (2) Such provisions as may be reviewed and shall be published in the Gazette.

429. General power of awarding imprisonment in default of payment of penalty

Where by any Law, the Court is empowered to impose a penalty for an offence for which it can convict summarily, it may, in the absence of express provisions to the contrary, Order a Defendant who has been so convicted, in default of payment of the sum of money adjudged to be paid under the Order, either immediately or at the time specified in the Order, as the case may be, to be imprisoned, in accordance with the scale set out in the Appendix F to this Law.

430. Scale of imprisonment for non-payment of money ordered to be paid

Subject, in every case, to the provisions of the Law on which the Order is founded, the period of imprisonment, which is imposed by the Court in respect of the non-payment of a sum of money ordered to be paid by an order, shall be such period as, in the opinion of the Court will satisfy the justice of the case but shall not exceed the maximum fixed in the scale set out in the Appendix F to this Law.

431. Limitation of imprisonment in default of payment of fine

A committal for non-payment of a fine shall not exceed two years, except where the Law under which the conviction is made, allows a longer period.

432. Payment and allocation of fines and fees

- (1) A Court, in fixing the amount of fine to be imposed on a convict, may take into consideration, amongst other things, the means of the convict.
- (2) Where a fine is imposed, the payment of the Court fees and other legal expenses payable in the case, up to, and Including conviction, shall not be taken into consideration in fixing the amount of the fine or be imposed in addition to the fine, but the amount of the fine or of such part as may be paid or recovered, shall be applied as follows:

- (a) In the First Instance, in the payment to the informant or complainant of any Court or other fees paid by him and ordered by the Court to be repaid to him;
- (b) in the Second instance, the payment of any outstanding Court fee not already paid by the informant or complainant which may be payable under rules of Court; and
- (c) the balance, if any, remaining after the payments have been made shall be paid into general revenue of the State.

433. Power to commit defendant in certain cases

In a case where an Order is made against a Defendant for the Payment of a sum of money and the Defendant is in default of Payment and liable to be imprisoned, the Court may:

- (a) issue a warrant of committal;
- (b) allow time for the payment of the said sum; and direct that the Defendant liable to pay the said sum shall be at liberty to give, to the satisfaction of the Court, security, either with or without a surety or sureties, for the payment of the said sum or any installment.

434. Allowance of further time and payment by instalments

- (1) Where time has been allowed for the payment of a sum adjudged to be paid upon conviction or order, further time may, on an application by or on behalf of the convict liable to pay the sum, be allowed by a Court having jurisdiction to issue a warrant of committal in respect of the non-payment of that sum, the Court may, subject as aforesaid, direct payment by installments of the sum so adjudged to be paid.
- (2) Where a sum of money is directed to be paid by installments and default is made in the payment of any one installment, proceedings may be taken as if default has been made in the payment of all the installments remaining unpaid.

- (3) Where before the expiration of the time allowed, the convict surrenders himself to the Court having jurisdiction to issue a warrant of committal in respect of the non-payment of the sum and states that he prefers immediate committal, the Court may, if it thinks fit, issue a warrant committing him to Custodial Centre.
- (4) A warrant of committal issued under the provisions of this Section may be executed on any day, including a Sunday or a public holiday.

435. Payment of penalty to person executing warrant

In all cases where a convict, against whom a warrant of committal for non-payment of a sum of money adjudged to be paid by an order is issued, pays or tenders to the person having the execution of the warrant the sum or sums mentioned in the warrant together with the amount of the expenses of the warrant up to the time of the payment or tender, the person having the execution of the warrant shall not execute the warrant.

436. Commencement of imprisonment pursuant to a warrant

Where a convict is brought to a Custodial Centre to be imprisoned by virtue of a warrant of committal, there shall be endorsed on the warrant the day on which the convict was arrested by virtue of it and the imprisonment shall be computed from that day.

437. Varying or discharging order for sureties

Where a person has been committed to Custodial Centre by the Court for default in finding a surety or sureties, the Court may, on application made to it by the person or by some person acting on his behalf, inquire into the case, and if new evidence is produced in proof of a change of circumstances the Court, having regard to such circumstances may:

- (a) reduce the amount for which it was ordered that the surety or sureties should be bound;
- (b) dispense with the surety or sureties; or
- (c) otherwise deal with the case as it deems fit.

438. Right of person imprisoned in default to be released on paying sum and effect of part payment

- (1) Where a person has been committed to Custodial Centre by the Court for non-payment of a sum of money adjudged to be paid by an order, the person may pay or cause to be paid to the Officer in charge of the Custodial Centre the sum mentioned in the warrant of committal together with the amount of the costs, charges and expenses, if any, and the Officer in charge of the Custodial Centre shall receive the sums and discharge the person, unless he is in custody for some other matter.

- (2) In a case where under subsection (1) of this Section a sum has been received in part satisfaction of a sum due from a prisoner in consequence of the conviction of the Court, the sum shall be applied:
 - (a) firstly, towards the payment in full or in part of any cost or damages or compensation which the Court may have ordered to be paid to the complainant; and
 - (b) secondly, towards the payment of the fine, if any, imposed on the prisoner.

- (3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this Section, where an amount is paid towards a fine:
 - (a) the imprisonment shall be reduced by a number of days bearing as nearly as possible the same proportion to the total number of days for which the person is committed as the sum so paid towards the fine bears to the amount of the fine for which the person is liable; and
 - (b) the superintendent or other Officer In charge of a Custodial Centre in which a person who has made the part payment is confined shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, take the person before a Court which shall:
 - (i) certify the amount by which the term of imprisonment originally awarded is reduced by such payment in part satisfaction, and
 - (ii) make such order as the circumstances require.

- (4) Where, in the opinion of the superintendent or other Officer, the delay occasioned by taking the person before a Court is such that the person will be detained beyond the date on which he should, by reason of the part payment, be released, the superintendent or other Officer may release the person on the day which appears to the superintendent or other Officer to be the correct day, endorse the warrant accordingly and shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, inform the Court of the action taken and the Court shall make such Order it may consider to be appropriate in circumstances.
- (5) In reckoning:
- (a) the number of days by which a term of imprisonment would be reduced under this Section, the First day of imprisonment shall not be taken into account; and
- (b) the sum which will secure the reduction of a term of imprisonment, fractions of a naira shall be omitted.

439. Fines may be ordered to be recoverable by distress

Where, under the authority of a Law, the Court imposes a fine or a pecuniary penalty, whether or not that fine or penalty is accompanied by a power to impose imprisonment, and no special provision other than recovery by distress is made for the recovery of the fine or penalty, the Court may:

- (a) order the fine or penalty to be recovered by distress; and

(c) the extenuating circumstances under which the offence was committed, it is inexpedient to inflict a punishment or any order than a nominal punishment or that it is expedient to release the Defendant on probation, the Court may without proceeding to conviction, make an order specified in subsection (2) of this Section.

(2) The Court may make an order under subsection (1) of this Section:

(a) dismissing the charge; or

(b) discharging the Defendant conditionally on his entering into a recognizance, with or without sureties, to be of good behaviour and to appear at any time during Such period not exceeding 3 years as may be specified in the order.

(3) The Court may, in addition to an order under subsection (2) of this Section, order:

(a) the Defendant to pay such damages for injury or compensation for any loss suffered by a person by reason of the conduct or omission of the Defendant, and to pay such costs of the proceedings as the Court thinks reasonable; and

- (b) the parent or guardian of the Defendant to pay the damages and costs specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection, where the Defendant has not attained the age of 18 years and it appears to the Court that the parent or guardian of the Defendant has by acts or omission, contributed to the commission of the offence.
- (4) Where an Order is made under this Section, the Order:
 - (a) for the purpose of reinvesting or restoring stolen property and of enabling the Court to make orders as to the restitution or delivery of property to the owner, and
 - (b) as to the payment of money upon, or in connection with, such restitution or delivery, shall have the like effect as a conviction.

451. Probation order and condition of cognizance

- (1) A recognizance ordered to be entered into under this Part shall, where the Court so orders, contain a condition that the Defendant be under the supervision of such person or persons of the same gender, to be called a Probation Officer, and may, with his consent, be named in the Order during the period specified in the Order.
- (2) A recognizance under this Part may contain such additional conditions with respect to residence, abstention from intoxicating substance and any other matter as the Court may, having regard to the circumstances of the case, consider necessary for preventing a repetition of the same offence or the commission of other offences.
- (3) The Court making a Probation Order shall furnish to the Defendant a notice in writing stating in simple terms the conditions he is required to observe.

452. Relieving probation officer of his duties

A Probation Officer may, at any time, be relieved of his duties or in case of the death of the Probation Officer, another person may with his consent be substituted by the Court before which the Defendant is bound by his recognizance to appear for conviction or sentence.

453. Duties of probation officers

- (1) A Probation Officer shall, subject to the directions of the Court:
- (a) where the person on probation is not actually with the Probation Officer, visit or receive reports on the person under supervision at such reasonable intervals as may be specified in the Probation order or as the Probation Officer may think fit;
 - (b) ensure that he observes the conditions of his recognizance;
 - (c) report to the Court as to his behaviour; and (d) advise and assist him if, and when necessary.
- (2) The Chief Judge shall make regulations with respect to the appointment of Probation Officers, including designation of persons of good character as Probation Officers from which a Court within the District or division where the Probation Officer resides may make its appointment under Section 451 of this Law.

454. Variation of terms and conditions of probation

The Court before which a Defendant is bound by a recognizance under this Part to appear for conviction and sentence or for sentence may:

- (a) at any time where it appears to it on the application of the probation Officer that it is expedient that the terms or conditions of the recognizance should be varied, summon the Defendant bound by the recognizance to appear before it and if he fails to show cause why the variation should not be made:
 - (i) vary the terms of the recognizance by extending or reducing the duration, which shall not exceed 3 years from the date of the original order, or
 - (ii) alter the conditions or insert additional conditions, or
- (b) on application being made by the Probation Meet, and on being “tuned that the conduct of the Defendant bound by the recognizance has been such as to make it unnecessary for him to be under supervision, discharge the recognizance

455. Provisions in case of convict failing to observe conditions of release

- (1) Where the Court before which a Defendant is bound by his recognizance under this Part to appear for conviction or sentence is satisfied by information on oath that the Defendant has failed to observe any of the conditions of his recognizance, it may issue a warrant for his arrest or may, where it thinks fit, instead of issuing a warrant in the first instance, issue a summons to the Defendant and his sureties, if any, requiring him or them to appear in Court at such time as may be specified in the summons.
- (2) The Defendant when arrested shall, if not brought before the Court before which he is bound by his recognizance to appear for conviction or sentence, be brought before another Court.
- (3) The Court before which a Defendant on arrest is brought or before which he appears in pursuance of the summons may, where it is not the Court before which he is bound by his recognizance to appear for conviction or sentence, remand him to custody or on bail until he can be brought before the last-mentioned Court.
- (4) A Defendant so remanded in custody may be committed during remand to a Custodial Centre to which the Court having power to convict or sentence him has power to commit prisoners.
- (5) A Court before which a Defendant is bound by his recognizance to appear for conviction and sentence on being satisfied that he has failed to observe a condition of his recognizance may, without further proof of his guilt, convict and sentence him for the original offence.

456. Suspended sentence and community service

- (1) Notwithstanding the provision of any other Law creating an offence, where the Court sees reason, the Court may order that the sentence it imposed on the convict be, with or without conditions, suspended, in which case, the convict shall not be required to serve the sentence in accordance with the conditions of the suspension.
- (2) The Court may, with or without conditions, sentence the convict to perform specified service in his community or such community or place as the Court may direct.

- (3) A convict shall not be sentenced to suspended sentence or to community service for an offence involving the use of arms, offensive weapon, sexual offences or for an offence which the punishment exceeds imprisonment for a term of 3 years.
- (4) The Court, in exercising its power under subsection (1) or (2) of this Section shall have regard to the need to:

- (4) The Registrar of the Court making the community service order shall forward to the Registrar of the Community Service Centre a copy of the order together with any other document and information relating to the case.

459. Default of convict in complying with community service order

- (1) Where at any time during the community service period, the Registrar of the Community Service Centre informs the Court of the default of the convict in complying with the directives of the community service order, the Court may issue a summons requiring the convict to appear before it.

- (2) Where the convict fails, refuses or neglects to appear in obedience to the summons, the Court may issue a warrant of arrest.
- (3) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the convict has failed to comply with any of the requirements of the community service order, the Court may:
 - (a) vary the order to suit the circumstances of the case; or
 - (b) impose on him a fine not exceeding N100,000.00 or cancel the order and sentence the convict to any punishment which could have been imposed in respect of the offence, but the period of community service already performed may count in the reduction of the sentence.
- (4) A supervising officer shall not employ the convict for his or her personal benefit.
- (5) Where a supervising officer employs the convict for his or her personal benefit, the Officer is liable to a fine of N50,000.00 or more, or such other punishment as the Court considers fit.

460. Commission of further offence

Where a convict has been ordered to undergo community service on conviction by an original Court but has committed another offence during the period of community service, the following rules shall apply:

- (a) the subsequent Court may add to the sentence or impose a term of imprisonment which might have been passed by the original Court and cancel the order of community service;
- (b) the subsequent Court may take into account the period of community service served in reduction of the term of imprisonment;

- (c) where the original Court is a High Court and the subsequent Court is a subordinate Court, the subordinate Court shall send the copy of the proceedings to the High Court and, on receipt of the proceedings from the subordinate Court, the High Court shall proceed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section; and
- (d) where the original Court is a subordinate Court and the subsequent Court is a High Court dealing with the matter at First instance or on appeal, the High Court shall proceed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section.

461. Amendment, review and discharge of community service orders

- (1) A convict undergoing community service who intends to change his or her place of residence shall inform the supervising Officer of his intention to do so.
- (2) On receipt of the information, the supervising officer shall furnish the Registrar of the Community Service Centre with the information giving the details of the case.
- (3) On application by the Registrar of the Community Service Centre, the Court shall make appropriate amendment in the community service order and inform the Court having jurisdiction for the area where the convict intends to reside.
- (4) The Court shall give the convict a copy of the amended community service order which the convict shall present to the subsequent Community Service Centre.

462. Discharge of community service order

- (1) Where a convict has been ordered to undergo community service for a period of more than 4 months, the supervising officer shall, from time to time, give a report to the Registrar on the convict's performance and general conduct.
- (2) The supervising Court based on the report made by the Registrar, may reduce the period of the community service specified in the community service order by not more than one-third where the convict is of good conduct.

- (3) The Registrar shall make a report to the supervising Court on the termination of a community service Order.
- (4) The supervising Officer who is to be responsible for the supervision of a convict shall be the officer designated by the Registrar of the Community Service Centre and if that supervising Officer dies or is unable for any reason to carry out his duties, another supervising Officer shall be appointed by the Registrar of the Community Service Centre.

- (e) prescribing anything or any person required to be prescribed under the provisions of this Law;
- (f) regulation and management of non-custodial punishments provided under this Law; and
- (g) generally carrying into effect the purposes of this Law.

490. Non-compliance

- (1) Where no other sanction is provided for in this Law, failure on the part of any person to discharge his responsibility under this Law without reasonable cause shall be treated as misconduct by the appropriate authority.
- (2) Where there are no express provisions in this Law, the Court may apply any procedure that will meet the justice of the case

PART LII

PROTECTION OF VICTIMS AND WITNESSES

491. Trials not to be held in open court

- (1) A trial for the offences referred to in subsection (4) of this section may not be held in an open court where the court so determines
- (2) The names, addresses, telephone numbers and identity of the victims of such offences or witnesses shall not be disclosed in any publication and it shall be sufficient to designate the names of the victims or witnesses with a combination of alphabets.
- (3) Where in any proceeding the court deems it necessary to protect the identity of the victim or a witness, the court may take any or all of the following measures-
 - (a) receive evidence by video link;
 - (b) permit the witness to be screened or masked;
 - (c) receive written deposition of expert evidence; and
 - (d) any other measure that the court considers appropriate in the circumstance.
- (4) The provisions of this section shall apply to -
 - (a) offences under sections 279A, 279B, 280, 281A and 282B of the Penal Code Law of Bauchi State, CAP 108; or any corresponding provisions in any Law in force and
 - (b) any other offence in respect of which a law of the State House of Assembly permits the use of such protective measures or as the Judge may consider appropriate in the circumstances.
- (5) Any contravention of the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall be an offence punishable on conviction to a term not exceeding one (1) year custodial sentence.

492. Victims and witnesses protection

- (1) In exceptional circumstances, either of the parties may apply to the court to order the non- disclosure of the identity of a victim or witness who may be in danger or at risk, until the trial court decides otherwise.
- (2) In the determination of protective measures for victims and witnesses, the trial court may consult the office responsible for the protection of witnesses.
- (3) A court may, suo motu or at the request of either party, or of the body or unit in charge of victim or witness concerned, order appropriate measures for the privacy and protection of victims and witnesses:

Provided that the measures are consistent with the rights of the offender.

- (4) A trial court may hold in camera proceedings to determine whether to order -
 - (a) measures to prevent disclosure to the public or the media of the identity or whereabouts of a victim or a witness, or of persons related to or associated with a victim or witness by such means as:
 - (i) non-disclosure to the public of any records identifying the victim or witness;
 - (ii) giving of testimony through image or voice altering devices, video link or closed-circuit television; and
 - (iii) assignment of a pseudonym.
 - (b) closed session; or
 - (c) appropriate measures to facilitate the testimony of vulnerable victims and witnesses.

PART LIII

DEPORTATION

493. Court may recommend deportation for offences punishable by imprisonment without option

Where a person is convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment without the option of a fine, in addition to or instead of any other punishment, recommend to the Minister of Internal Affairs that he be deported if it appears to the Court to be in the interest of peace, order and good governance that an order of deportation should be made under this Section.

494. Deportation in default of security for the peace

Where, upon any affidavit, it appears to a court that there is reason to believe that any person in the State is about to commit a breach of peace, or that his conduct is likely to produce or excite a breach of peace, the Court, after due inquiry at which the person concerned shall be present, may order him to give security of two or more sureties for peace and good behaviour, and in default, may recommend to the Minister of internal Affairs that he be deported.

495. Deportation in case of dangerous conduct

(1) Where it is shown by evidence on oath to the satisfaction of a Court that any person in the State is conducting or has conducted himself so as to constitute a threat to peace and order, or is endeavouring or has endeavoured to excite enmity between any section of the people of the Federal Republic of Nigeria or is intriguing or has intrigued against constituted power and authority in Nigeria, the Court shall recommend to the minister of Internal Affairs that he be deported.

(2) After considering the representation, if any, of the person concerned and the facts upon which the proceedings are founded, the Court shall decide whether or not to recommend to Minister of Internal affairs that the Person concerned be deported.

496. Procedure prior to court recommending deportation under Sections 494 and 495

- (1) Where a person required to give security under section 332 defaults in so doing and the Court contemplates recommending to the Minister of Internal Affairs the deportation of a person to whom section 495 relates, before making any such recommendation, the Court shall require the person concerned to attend before the Court and, being informed of the allegations made against him, be given an opportunity to show cause why he should not be deported.
- (2) After considering the representation, if any, of the person concerned and the facts upon which the proceeding are founded, the Court shall decide whether or not to recommend to the Minister of Internal Affairs that the person concerned be deported.

497. Procedure for recommendation of deportation under Sections 494, 495 or 496

Where the Court decides to recommend to the Minister of Internal Affairs the deportation of any person under section 494, 495 or 496, the Court shall forward to the Minister of Internal Affairs the recommendation together with a report setting out the reasons why the Court considers it necessary to make the recommendation and a certified true copy of any proceedings relating to it.

498. Detention of person concerned

Where a recommendation for deportation has been made in respect of a person to whom section 494, 495, or 496 relate, such person may be detained in custody pending the decision of the Minister of Internal Affairs and during such time shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.

499. Power to make order of deportation

If the Minister of Internal Affairs decides that in the interest of peace, order, and good governance, an order of deportation should be made, he may issue a written order directing the person to be deported to a place outside Nigeria.

500. Minister may refuse order for deportation

shall be made, he shall inform the Court, the Court shall proceed to make such order of imprisonment or other punishment as may be authorised by law.

501. Provision as to order sentence of deportation

- (1) If a person ordered to be deported is sentenced to any term of imprisonment, such sentence of imprisonment shall be served before the order of deportation is carried into effect.
- (2) An order of deportation shall be expressed to be in force for a limited time or for an unlimited time and shall require the deported person to report himself to the nearest Administrative Officer or Police Officer at intervals for not less than thirty (30) days.
- (3) An order of deportation shall be sufficient authority to all persons to whom it is directed or delivered for execution to receive and detain the person named in the order and to carry him to the place named.
- (4) If a person leaves or attempt to leave the district or place to which he has been deported, while the order of deportation is still in force, without the written consent of the Minister of Internal Affairs which consent shall be given subject to any terms as to security for good behaviour or otherwise, as the Minister of Internal Affairs shall deem fit or wilfully neglects or refuses to report himself as ordered, such person is liable to imprisonment for six (6) months and to be again deported on a fresh warrant under the original order or under a new order.

The provisions of this law on deportation shall not apply to Nigerian Citizens.

PART LIV

SAVINGS AND REPEAL

502. Savings

- (1) Nothing in this Law shall affect the use or validity of any form in respect of a procedure or an offence specified under the provisions of a Law or the validity of any other procedure provided by any other Law.
- (2) Nothing in this Law shall affect the validity of any investigation, prosecution, charge, or proceedings initiated or commenced under the Penal Code or any other Law before the coming into force of this Law.

503. Repeal
